Sibum believes that every human being has a divine spot in their hearts for mission services It is greater than what the human eye can see bigger than what the world can measure older than what history can tell louder than million thunderstorms harder than the rock stronger than the lion That spot in our hearts once connected to the divine power of God it magnifies itself as we witness the Word of God daily be it in our workplace home parties meetings churches The moment we utter Good morning we are already witnessing the miracle of life NKJV Philippians 3 verses 13 14 Brethren I do not count myself to have apprehended but one thing I do forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus Born in Africa her mission was in the health services involved in the campaign to overseas donors for funding and building expecting mothers shelter and a health facility through the Association of Church Related Hospitals in Africa Sibum is currently living with her family in Canada

The United Presbyterian , 1907      Psalms David E. Garland, 2008 This is a complete revision of the Gold Medallion winning commentary series It is up to date in its discussion of theological and critical issues and thoroughly evangelical in its viewpoint Publisher description      Forgotten Songs Ray Van Neste, C. Richard Wells, 2012-10-01 Many in the church have forgotten the Psalms They may still be read but the rich history of using them as the backbone of Christian worship from the earliest days of the church until the 19th century is unknown For some the thought of praying or singing the Psalms alone or with others is entirely foreign In this we are out of step with our forebears in the faith we are an oddity in the history of the church and duly suffer for it Drawn by the rich spiritual depth produced in so many who have invested themselves in the Psalms Forgotten Songs seeks to reclaim the content in various areas of worship This book first examines biblical and historical foundations for the use of the Psalms in worship The Old Testament and New Testament are revisited noting the nature and purpose of the Psalms and how they were used Examples of the Psalms being employed by the Church Fathers and throughout the Reformation are also explored The second section of the book examines specific ways of using the Psalms in our worship today These aren't abstract ideas or suggestions but are examples from the personal and corporate lives of individuals who have been significantly impacted by the Psalms From group singing of the Psalms to praying Psalms publicly and privately to pastoral care and the place of lament Forgotten Songs will help others remember to actively use the Psalms in their own worship lives individually and corporately Contributors include such academicians and authors as Craig A. Blaising Douglas Bond Randall Bush Jack Collins Chad Davis J. Michael Garrett James H. Grant Jr James Richard Joiner Ray Ortlund Leland Ryken Calvin Seerveld Justin Wainscott and John D.
