Wank, 2023-05-31 With more than 150 000 Japanese restaurants around the world Japanese cuisine has become truly global Through the transnational culinary mobilities of migrant entrepreneurs workers ideas and capital Japanese cuisine spread and adapted to international tastes But this expansion is also entangled in culinary politics ranging from authenticity claims and status competition among restaurateurs and consumers to societal racism immigration policies and soft power politics that have shaped the transmission and transformation of Japanese cuisine Such politics has involved appropriation oppression but also cooperation across ethnic lines Ultimately the restaurant is a continually reinvented imaginary of Japan
