A Fort in the Forest

We can make a fort for our club. Our fort can be in the forest. First, we must cut down all the thorns. Next, we must sort our wood. We do not need wood that is short. We will start with the floor. Then, we can form the walls and roof. We must not forget a porch. All good forts have a porch. When the fort is done, we can explore more of the forest.

Highlight the text that answers each question. Write each answer in sentence form.

What will they do first?

What will they do with the wood?

What will they do when the fort is done?
