Ramblin's and Recollections Don Hill, 2002-10 The philosopher says you can't go home again yet we try Of course we know the good old days will never return or be the same again but that doesn't stop the memories of those days gone by What wonderful things memories And how strange it is just how the mind sorts them all out It seems the wonderful mind likes to remember the good things and tries to block out the bad Yes memories are just stored away waiting for that special moment They are often fleeting there for a moment and then gone going back waiting for another chance to pop out One needs an Indian Dream Catcher to hold them in place for others to enjoy This then is my book of catches All the memories are not here There are still some just waiting for that special moment It may be like the other day while painting my back door and the brush pauses in mid air and my daughter asks Dad why are you smiling And I reply Nothing Hon nothing at all For a moment I just went home again

Daniel, 2009-12-03 Harry Reasoner was one of the most trusted and well liked journalists of the golden age of network television news Whether anchoring the evening newscast on CBS in the 1960s or on ABC in the 1970s providing in depth reporting on 60 Minutes or hosting numerous special programs covering civil rights struggles the Vietnam War and Watergate Reasoner had that almost mystical quality it seems to take for good television reporting exuding this atmosphere of truth and believability in the words of Walter Cronkite Yet his reassuring manner and urbane often witty on air persona masked a man who was far more complex and contradictory Though gifted with the intelligence and drive to rise to the top of his profession Reasoner was regarded by many colleagues as lazy and self indulgent a man who never achieved his full potential despite his many accomplishments Harry Reasoner A Life in the News covers the entire sweep of this enigmatic journalist s life and career Douglass K Daniel opens with Reasoner s Depression era Midwestern upbringing and follows him through his early work in newspapers and radio before he joined CBS in 1956 Focusing on Reasoner s thirty five year tenure in television news Daniel presents fascinating behind the scenes accounts of Reasoner s key role in founding the top rated newsmagazine 60 Minutes He also explores Reasoner s highly publicized move to ABC in 1970 where he anchored the nightly newscast first with

Howard K Smith and later with Barbara Walters a disastrous pairing from which Reasoner's career never fully recovered. Based on scores of interviews and unpublished letters, memos, and other primary sources, this first biography of the man once rated second in credibility only to Walter Cronkite illuminates an entire era in broadcast journalism as well as many of the unique personalities from Andy Rooney to Mike Wallace who made that era distinctive. QST., 1927 The Strong Gray Line Cory Wallace, 2015-10-16 To preserve the memory of their service during the tumultuous decade since their commissioning as Army officers, members of the West Point class of 2004 have written The Strong Gray Line. This class suffered the highest casualty rate since those that graduated during the Vietnam War. In this book, thirteen of their classmates who lost their lives fighting the Global War on Terror are profiled to help the reader gain an understanding of the bond forged between classmates during time at West Point, a bond that transcends the separation of death. In addition to the stirring profiles, thirteen personal essays detail some of the most brutal fighting of Operations Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom, in addition to the struggles endured by those on the home front. These stories range from visceral observations of combat to a wife's anxious wait for her husband to return home. Holistically, these stories define an emotional spectrum that enables the reader to connect not only with the experience of the Class of 2004 but with every man and woman who served their country in a time of war. What separates The Strong Gray Line from other war memoirs is the illustration of the endurance of the bond forged at West Point. It is fitting that these exceptional young service members be remembered and revered not only as examples of selfless and intrepid officership but also as monuments to the thousands of fellow Americans who served alongside them. Radio & TV News, 1923 Some issues Aug 1943 Apr 1954 are called Radio electronic engineering, ed called in 1943 Radionics, ed which include a separately paged section. Radio electronic engineering varies v 1 no 2 v 22 no 7 issued separately Aug 1954 May 1955 The Women with Silver Wings Katherine Sharp Landdeck, 2020 The thrilling true story of the daring female aviators who helped the United States win World War II only to be forgotten by the country they served. When Japanese planes executed a sneak attack on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, Cornelia Fort was already in the air. At twenty-two, Cornelia had escaped Nashville's debutante scene for a fresh start as a flight instructor in Hawaii. She and her student were in the middle of their lesson when the bombs began to fall, and they barely made it back to ground that morning. Still, when the U.S. Army Air Forces put out a call for women pilots to aid the war effort, Cornelia was one of the first to respond. She became one of just over 1,100 women from across the nation to make it through the Army's rigorous selection process and earn her silver wings. In The Women with Silver Wings, historian Katherine Sharp Landdeck introduces us to these young women as they meet even tempered, methodical Nancy Love and demanding, visionary Jacqueline Cochran, the trailblazing pilots who first envisioned sending American women into the air and whose rivalry would define the Women Airforce Service Pilots. For women like Cornelia, it was a chance to serve their country and to prove that women aviators were just as skilled and able as men. While not authorized to serve in combat, the WASP helped train male pilots for service abroad and ferried bombers and pursuits across the country Thirty eight of them would not survive the war But even taking into account these tragic losses Love and Cochran s social experiment seemed to be a resounding success until with the tides of war turning and fewer male pilots needed in Europe Congress clipped the women s wings The program was disbanded the women sent home But the bonds they d forged never failed and over the next few decades they came together to fight for recognition as the military veterans they were and for their place in history Radio News ,1921 Some issues 1943 July 1948 include separately paged and numbered section called Radio electronic engineering edition called Radionics edition in 1943
