1. BACKGROUND
This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.
Operation is subject to the following two conditions:
This device may not cause harmful interference.
This device must accept any interference received,
including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Changes to configuration may require approval by the party responsible for compliance with the FCC's authority to enforce its approvals.

2. THE EQUIPMENT has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to Part 15 of the FCC Rules. These limits are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference to a residential installation.
This equipment generates, uses, and can radiate radio frequency energy and, if not installed and used in accordance with the instructions, may cause harmful interference to radio communications. However, there is no guarantee that interference of this sort will not occur in a particular installation. If the equipment does cause harmful interference to radio or television reception, which can be determined by turning the equipment off and on, the user is encouraged to try to correct the interference by one of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and receiver.
- Connect the equipment into a different wall outlet.
- Consult the dealer or a qualified technician for assistance.

These measures should not be used if the interference is determined to be caused by an equipment other than the equipment being tested. Contact the dealer or a qualified technician for assistance.

Resolving Interference

To determine if the equipment is causing harmful RF emissions,
the device can be tested in portable operation
without external connections.
