Australian Rock Art Robert Layton, 1992-11-27 A survey of Australian rock art presenting detailed case studies revealing the significance of both recent and ancient art for Australia's living indigenous communities Relating to Rock Art in the Contemporary World Liam M. Brady, Paul S.C. Taçon, 2016-12-01 Rock art has long been considered an archaeological artifact reflecting activities from the past yet it is also a phenomenon with present day meaning and relevance to both indigenous and non indigenous communities Relating to Rock Art in the Contemporary World challenges traditional ways of thinking about this highly recognizable form of visual heritage and provides insight into its contemporary significance One of the most visually striking forms of material culture embedded in landscapes rock art is ascribed different meanings by diverse groups of people including indigenous peoples governments tourism offices and the general public all of whom relate to images and sites in unique ways In this volume leading scholars from around the globe shift the discourse from a primarily archaeological basis to one that examines the myriad ways that symbolism meaning and significance in rock art are being renegotiated in various geographical and cultural settings from Australia to the British Isles They also consider how people manage the complex meanings emotions and cultural and political practices tied to rock art sites and how these factors impact processes relating to identity construction and reaffirmation today Richly illustrated and geographically diverse Relating to Rock Art in the Contemporary World connects archaeology anthropology and heritage studies The book will appeal to students and scholars of archaeology anthropology heritage heritage management identity studies art history indigenous studies and visual theory as well as professionals and amateurs who have vested or avocational interests in rock art Contributors Agust n Acevedo Manuel Bea Jutinach Bowonsachoti Gemma Boyle John J Bradley Noelene Cole In s Domingo Kurt E Dongoske Davida Eisenberg Degen D nae Fiore Ursula K Frederick Kelley Hays Gilpin Catherine Namono George H Nash John Norder Marianna Ocampo Joshua Schmidt Duangpond Singhaseni Benjamin W Smith Atthasit Sukkham Noel Hidalgo Tan Watinee Tanompolkrang Luke Taylor Dagmara Zawadzka Planning for Community Phil Heywood,2023-08-29 Planning for Community A comprehensive exploration of community planning that integrates today s social and economic issues with policy and governance considerations In Planning for Community distinguished regional and local planner Phil Heywood delivers an insightful examination of the accelerating impacts of social environmental and economic changes on community life and organization He explores the ways in which these changes can be anticipated planned for and managed as he reviews and evaluates the nature and challenges of place and interaction faced by traditional and emerging local communities The book includes discussions of the values aims and methods of community planning and the key operations in each of the fields of housing work transport health and environment It should also inspire and assist readers to become more involved and influential in the lives of their local and wider communities Readers will also find A thorough introduction to methods of inclusion and empowerment enabling effective community management Comprehensive explorations of the ways the values of prosperity liberty social justice and sustainability link to practical community problem solving Practical discussions of the values methods activities design and governance shaping community planning Comprehensive well grounded and effective treatments of policy development and practice Planning for Community is an excellent resource for professionals activists academics and students seeking a comprehensive and readable guide to community planning Thinking Through the Arts Wendy Schiller,2004-06-01 Thinking Through the Arts draws together a number of different approaches to teaching young children that combine the experience of thinking with the act of expression through art Developed as an inclusive broad ranging and user friendly text Thinking Through the Arts presents the unique insight of teachers as researchers and counters the view that art is emotionally based and therefore irrelevant to thinking and learning The areas covered include drama dance music arts environments technologies museums and galleries literacy cognition international influences curriculum development research and practice Early childhood and primary
