Reinventing Clinical Decision Support Paul Cerrato,John Halamka,2020-01-06

This book takes an in depth look at the emerging technologies that are transforming the way clinicians manage patients while at the same time emphasizing that the best practitioners use both artificial and human intelligence to make decisions AI and machine learning are explored at length with plain clinical English explanations of convolutional neural networks back propagation and digital image analysis Real world examples of how these tools are being employed are also discussed including their value in diagnosing diabetic retinopathy melanoma breast cancer cancer metastasis and colorectal cancer as well as in managing severe sepsis With all the enthusiasm about AI and machine learning it was also necessary to outline some of criticisms obstacles and limitations of these new tools Among the criticisms discussed the relative lack of hard scientific evidence supporting some of the latest algorithms and the so called black box problem A chapter on data analytics takes a deep dive into new ways to conduct subgroup analysis and how it s forcing healthcare executives to rethink the way they apply the results of large clinical trials to everyday medical practice This re evaluation is slowly affecting the way diabetes heart disease hypertension and cancer are treated The research discussed also suggests that data analytics will impact emergency medicine medication management and healthcare costs An examination of the diagnostic reasoning process itself looks at how diagnostic errors are measured what technological and cognitive errors are to blame and what solutions are most likely to improve the process It explores Type 1 and Type 2 reasoning methods cognitive mistakes like availability bias affective bias and anchoring and potential solutions such as the Human Diagnosis Project Finally the book explores the role of systems biology and precision medicine in clinical decision support and provides several case studies of how next generation AI is transforming patient care

Lab Dog Brad Bolman,2025-05-06 Tracing over a century of transformation in the relationship between humans and our best friend from hunting companion to laboratory commodity to modern pet Intrepid docile and cloaked in coats of white black and tan beagles were one of the most popular breeds in the United States in the twentieth century From Snoopy to dog shows many Americans loved and identified with beagles But during the same period as scientists searched for a standard research dog beagles emerged as something else an ideal animal for laboratory experimentation In Lab Dog historian Brad Bolman explains how the laboratory dog became a subject of intense focus for twentieth century scientists and charts the beagle s surprising trajectory through global science Following beagles as they moved from eugenics to radiobiology pharmaceutical testing to Alzheimer s studies Lab Dog sheds new light on pivotal stories of twentieth century science including the Manhattan Project tobacco controversies contraceptive testing and behavioral genetics research Bolman shows how these experiments shaped our understanding of dogs as intelligent companions who deserve moral protection and socialization and in some cases daily medication Compelling and accessible Lab Dog tells the thorny story of the participation of beagles in science including both their sacrifices and their contributions and offers a glimpse into the future of animal experimentation

Teaching Geology Using the History and Philosophy of Science Glenn Dolphin,2024-10-02 This book provides a case study on how to design and build an introductory geology course for non science majors The book presents a foundation with the status of geoscience education and research in geoscience conceptual development as a backdrop for the design process It then describes the instructional goal setting process and development of the structural components of the course based on the determined goals The book presents the three historical narratives the earth is a historical entity the earth is very old and the earth is dynamic that form the foundation of instruction It also describes examples of the implicit explicit and reflective treatments of the nature of science to help student develop a better sense of the process of geology Finally the book gives preliminary results from some innovative approaches to research on student learning within the domains of geological content knowledge and NOS content knowledge within the course

Decision Making in Emergency Medicine Manda Raz,Pourya Pouryahya,2021-05-29 The book covers various scenarios when errors biases and systemic barriers prevail in emergency medicine discusses their impact and then offers solutions to mitigate their undesired outcomes The process of clinical reasoning in emergency medicine is a complex exercise in cognition judgment and problem solving that is prone to mistakes The book presents various cases written by a team of emergency specialists and trainees in an engaging format that is helpful for the practicing and teaching emergency doctor and trainees The book discusses 60 different types of biases and errors with clinical cases and knowledge of strategies to mitigate them a concept known as cognitive debiasing that has the potential to reduce diagnostic error and therefore morbidity and mortality It aims to help the readers during assessment of patients in the emergency department Each chapter includes 4 cases illustrating the bias error or barrier discussed followed by a potential solution This book helps in polishing the thinking and behavior of the readers so to potentially enhance their clinical competence in emergency department

Nightwatching Tracy Sierra,2025-01-21 Unputdownable Psychological Suspense

Horror Tense Gripping A FALLON BOOK CLUB PICK Pulse pounding locked room suspense Elle Nightwatching is like nothing I've read before I wolfed it down in two sittings it's amazing Lisa Jewell A footstep on the stairs A second to react What happens next will determine everything Home alone with her young children during a blizzard a mother tucks her son back into bed in the middle of the night She hears a noise old houses are always making some kind of noise But this sound is disturbingly familiar it's the tread of footsteps unusually heavy and slow coming up the stairs She sees the figure of a man appear down the hallway shrouded in the shadows Terrified she quietly wakes her children and hustles them into the oldest part of the house a tiny secret room concealed behind a wall There they hide as the man searches for them trying to tempt the children out with promises and scare the mother into surrender In the suffocating darkness the mother struggles to remain calm to plan Should she search for a weapon or attempt escape But then she catches another glimpse of him That face That voice And at once she knows her situation is even more dire than she'd feared because she knows exactly who he is and what he wants
