The Westminster Collection of Christian Quotations Martin H. Manser, 2001-01-01 This absorbing anthology includes insightful sayings from major figures in Christian history as well as from the Bible making it an ideal companion for every stage of the spiritual journey A Treasury of Illustrations and Quotations from Walking With Jesus Robert B. Callahan Sr., 2015-06-01 The Apostle Paul in exercising his ineffable wisdom draws this magnificent letter to a close in an extraordinary manner Certainly he could have concluded it after telling the masters and servants how to treat one another But no he did not He proceeded to challenge them to become Christ s Ambassadors and to be proficient in this high calling despite the daily obstacles pressures and temptations What does Paul boldly state after having told Christ s followers t hat we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro and carried about with every wind of doctrine by the sleight trickery of men and cunning craftiness whereby they lie in wait to deceive That they will have a life of ease no problems or worries and no challenges disappointments or hardships No But he did tell them how to conduct themselves in all of life s different phases Further that they were to walk in love as Christ hath also loved us and that not everyone hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God Paul contra to the practice today of many preachers teachers and church officers knew the problems that Christ s followers faced and he boldly addressed them He unequivocally stated that there were things appointed for them to do Knowing these things and the difficulties encountered in following Christ he issued a battle call to each and every follower saying take up unto you the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand in the evil day and having done all to stand Paul was forthright in describing the benefits and challenges of Walking With Jesus as well as the attitude conduct and conversation precluding one from entering the kingdom of Christ and God If we are to be Christ s Ambassadors whether it be preacher teacher church officer or profess ing Christian we are to know our duties and carry them out resolutely What are they They include but are not limited to discharging our duties honorably being loyal subjects following instructions knowing the Word and obeying Christ s commands May we along with Paul pray the following with humility and sincerity For which I am an ambassador that therein I may speak boldly as I ought to speak as one of His ambassadors Complete Book of Bible Quotations Mark L. Levine, 1988-08 This comprehensive collection contains 4 000 famous and less well known quotes from the pages of the King James Version of the Old Testament A perfect resource for speakers and writers The Quotations of the New Testament from the Old Franklin Johnson, 1896 Hebrews William L. Lane, 2004 By surpassing most traditional commentaries Lane s work unveils Hebrews as a sermon rendered by a concerned preacher to his Roman church which is under persecution and dangerously close to rejecting the faith As an exposition of encouragement and exhortation Hebrews addresses the central concerns of our contemporary church as well the felt absence of God a climate of uncertainty and insecurity the tension between secular conformity and spiritual maturity and the threat of societal perversion and materialism to a Christian commitment Christians are called upon to express a faith that is rooted in the future and to continue this life of pilgrimage with a radical new view of reality which is based on sure confidence in the intervention of God in daily life Tracing the writer s development thought by thought rather than verse by verse careful attention is paid to the cultural and historical background This work is useful as a study guide for groups and individuals or for any reader who wishes a mature understanding of the book of Hebrews "I AM": The Attributes of God Seen in Scripture, Science and Creation Mario G. Paul and Ancient Rhetoric Stanley E. Porter,Bryan R. Dyer,2016-02-24 The Apostle Paul lived and breathed in a Hellenistic culture that placed high value on the art of rhetoric and recent advances in rhetorical criticism of the New Testament have resulted in a new emphasis on the rhetorical aspect of his letters As many scholars have pointed out however it is not clear to what extent ancient rhetoric actually influenced Paul and his writing or how important rhetoric is for interpreting the Pauline corpus This volume containing contributions from major figures in the field provides a nuanced examination of how ancient rhetoric should inform our understanding of Paul and his letters The essays discuss Paul s historical context present innovative advances in and trenchant critiques of rhetorical theory and offer fresh readings of key Pauline texts Outlining the strengths and weaknesses of a widely used approach Paul and Ancient Rhetoric will be a valuable resource for New Testament and Classics scholars Artificial Intelligence Commentary on the Gospel of Matthew
