GEN. LEE'S OFFICIAL REPORT OF HIS Campaign in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

The official report of Gen. LEE of his campaign in Maryland and Pennsylvania, in June and July, was published in the Richmond papers of Saturday last, and it is, says the Richmond Examiner, "the first official report of Gen. LEE's many military operations which the public has been permitted to see." It clears up several points which have heretofore been but little understood, but leaves untouched many of the most interesting problems connected with the Northern invasion. As the rebel commander's view of that campaign, it is deeply interesting, especially as this is the first official report of it we have had, Gen. MEADE's not yet having been published:

Gen. S. Cooper, Adjutant and Inspector-General, Richmond Va.:

GENERAL: I have the honor to submit the following outline of the recent operations of this army for the information of the Department:

The position occupied by the enemy opposite Fredericksburgh being one in which he could not be attacked to advantage. It was determined to draw him from it. The execution of this purpose embraced the relief of the Shenandoah Valley from the troops that had occupied the lower part of it during the Winter and Spring, and, if practicable, the transfer of the scene of hostilities north of the Potomac.

It was thought that the corresponding movement on the part of the enemy, to which those contemplated by us could probably give rise, might offer a fair opportunity to strike a blow at the army therein com-
