My Life in Orange Tim Guest, 2016-03-01 A memoir of formative years spent on a series of communes A wonderful account of a frankly ghastly childhood Hilarious and heartbreaking Daily Mail At the age of six Tim Guest was taken by his mother to a commune modeled on the teachings of the notorious Indian guru Bhagwan Shree Rajneesh The Bhagwan preached an eclectic doctrine of Eastern mysticism chaotic therapy and sexual freedom and enjoyed inhaling laughing gas preaching from a dentist's chair and collecting Rolls Royces Tim and his mother were given Sanskrit names dressed entirely in orange and encouraged to surrender themselves into their new family While his mother worked tirelessly for the cause Tim or Yogesh as he was now called lived a life of well meaning but woefully misguided neglect in various communes in England Oregon India and Germany In 1985 the movement collapsed amid allegations of mass poisonings attempted murder and tax evasion and Yogesh was once again Tim In this extraordinary memoir Tim Guest chronicles the heartbreaking experience of being left alone on earth while his mother hunted heaven An intelligent wry openhearted memoir of surviving a childhood and a cultural phenomenon that were both extraordinary Booklist starred review

The Story of Your Life James Lambie, 2010 The intriguing story and turbulent history of a paper Charles Dickens praised for its range of information and profundity of knowledge and which Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother simply endorsed with the remark Of course I read The Sporting Life It was the Queen Mother's love of horseracing that made her such an avid reader of the Life and coverage of that sport forms the core of this book but there is so much more to fascinate the reader including eyewitness accounts of the first fight for the heavyweight championship of the world and Captain Webb's heroic Channel swim of 1875 Highlights in the history of cricket football and rugby are also featured while chapters on coursing and greyhound racing rank alongside surreal reports on ratting contests and songbird singing competitions And for 30 years Tommy Wisdom made his motoring reports unique by competing against the best at Brooklands Le Mans and in many Monte Carlo rallies while Henry Longhurst's golfing column was simply the best The paper's strident campaigns for racing reforms are also chronicled along with its coverage of major news stories from Fred Archer's shocking suicide to its own untimely demise Its travails in the law courts are documented from its first year when it was forced to change its title to its last when it had to pay libel damages to the training team of Lynda and Jack Ramsden and their jockey Kieren Fallon A higher price was paid by its French correspondent who was killed in a duel over an article he had written while the terrible toll the First World War took on the nation's sporting heroes is catalogued by the Life's embedded army correspondent against a background of political bungling that is being repeated today
