

The entire cover is framed by a highly detailed, multi-layered decorative border. It features a large, colorful arch at the top, filled with intricate floral and foliate patterns in shades of blue, red, and gold. Below the arch, the central text is set against a light yellow background. The bottom half of the cover is dominated by a large, complex medallion. This medallion is composed of several overlapping, scalloped-edged sections. Each section contains different ornamental designs: some have floral motifs, others have stylized human faces (masks or masks), and some have abstract, swirling patterns. The colors used in the medallion are vibrant, including deep blues, reds, greens, and yellows, all outlined in black or dark brown. The overall style is reminiscent of 19th-century decorative arts, specifically the work of Auguste Racinet.
