The different employee groups

Being one of the largest employers in the whole world, the Indian Railways is divided into many departments, zones and divisions. Its employees are divided into three categories – Group A, Group B and Group C. The Group B employees are those who are promoted from Group C.

The Railway Recruitment Board Exam is crucial for all those individuals who want to become a Group C employee of the Indian Railways. The different job positions available in the Group C of the Railways are Assistant Station masters, drivers, mechanical and signal inspectors, guards and motormen. All these positions are further divided into non-technical and technical roles.

The Group A officers are at the highest positions in the Indian Railways. The selection of the Group A officers is done by the Civil Service Exam. This exam helps recruit officers for Indian Railways Accounts Services and the Indian Railway Traffic Services. Officers for the Indian Railway Store Service (IRSS), Indian Railway Services of Signal Engineers (IRSSE), Indian Railway Service of Electrical Engineers (IRSEE), and Indian Railway Service of Engineers (IRSE) are selected based on their performance in the Combined Engineering Service Exam.
