Norma Jean Fred Lawrence Guiles,2020-04-28 Marilyn Monroe remains the most provocative female legend of the twentieth century What you may have known about her before was only the tip of the iceberg For twenty years the men and women who knew Marilyn best saw what they knew suppressed

because certain important people were still living and the tenor of the times prohibited frankness. Instead rumors ballooned. This book finally sets the record straight. Fred Guiles, whom Norman Mailer acknowledges as the chief source of fact about Marilyn, has written the life behind the legend. He reveals what really happened in the careening career of the pretty waif named Norma Jean Mortensen who married the boy next door, became a model, an actress, movie star, married an incompatible legend named Joe DiMaggio, sought to improve the mind that came with her near perfect body, married playwright Arthur Miller, lent herself to the Svengalilike ministrations of Paula and Lee Strasberg, became the mistress of John and then Robert Kennedy when they ran the country, kept camera crews and studios waiting but not death which took her under the most unusual circumstances by the age of thirty six. A legend by definition is unaltered by fact but the enthralled reader will find the revelations in this book no deterrent to the love of Marilyn Monroe by understanding at last what happened to the Queen of Need. Among the people interviewed for this book are Arthur Miller, James E. Dougherty, her first husband Frank Taylor, the producer of The Misfits, Lee Strasberg, Otto Preminger, Billy Wilder, Joshua Logan, and John Huston. Marilyn Revealed Ted Schwarz, 2009-01-16. At the age of 36 Marilyn Monroe died, a Hollywood movie star and became an American legend. This work combines the actress's personal confessions along with interviews with friends and contemporaries to reveal the truth behind this Hollywood icon. Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.

Copyright Office, 1966. Dueling Harlows Tom Lisanti, 2024-07-22. In 1965 producers Joseph E. Levine and Bill Sargent were racing to get their problem laden biopics of Jean Harlow both titled Harlow into theaters. First Levine's film starred Carroll Baker in a big budget color production. Sargent's movie starred Carol Lynley in a quickie black and white production shot in a new process called Electronovision. In the press the two producers conducted one of the nastiest feuds Hollywood had ever witnessed, nearly culminating in fisticuffs at the 1965 Academy Awards ceremony. In recounting the making of the two films, this book expanded from the original self published edition touches on Jean Harlow's life, the failed attempts to make a Harlow biopic in the 1950s and the reviled bestselling 1964 biography. It details the aftermath of each movie's release from scathing reviews to disappointing box office returns to the several lawsuits. Newly discussed are the portrayals of Jean Harlow on stage shortly after the Levine and Sargent films and the making of the 1977 film Hughes and Harlow: Angels in Hell starring Lindsay Bloom as Jean Harlow. The book is generously illustrated and includes interviews with people associated with all three films including Carol Lynley and Lindsay Bloom. Yule's Sinister Spell P.D.
