

NORTH CAROLINA EDUCATION LOTTERY POLICIES AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

CHAPTER 2 – GAME RULES

2.04A – POWERBALL GAME RULES

General Rules

- A. The purpose of the Powerball draw game is the generation of revenue for the Participating Lotteries, consisting of members from the Multi-State Lottery Association ("MUSL") to which the North Carolina Education Lottery ("NCEL") is a member, and participating U.S. lotteries operating under an agreement to sell Mega Millions, through the operation of a specially-designed multi-state lottery game that will award prizes to ticket holders matching specified combinations of numbers randomly selected in regularly scheduled drawings. These Rules shall apply to all NCEL Powerball ticket holders and claimants. These Rules incorporate the Multi-State Lottery ("MUSL") Powerball Game Rules.

- B. During each Powerball drawing, six (6) Powerball Winning Numbers will be selected from two (2) fields of numbers in the following manner: five (5) winning numbers from a field of one (1) through sixty-nine (69) numbers, and one (1) winning number from a field of one (1) through twenty-six (26) numbers.

- C. Definitions

Annuity Grand Prize – The Powerball top prize that would be paid in thirty (30) annual installments.

Authorized Claim Center - Any NCEL Retailer or NCEL Office, based upon the prize claim limits as established by the NCEL.

Cash Option – The manner in which the Powerball Grand/Jackpot Prize may be paid in a single payment.

Claimant and Claim - Any person or entity submitting a claim form and such claim form is received by a NCEL Office within the one hundred eightieth (180th) day from the Powerball drawing date to collect a prize for an Official Powerball Ticket. If the 180th calendar day falls on a day in which the NCEL is not open for business, the ticket must be claimed by the end of the NCEL's next business day. A Claimant may be the Purchaser, the person or entity named on a signed Official Powerball Ticket, the bearer of an unsigned Official Powerball Ticket or any other person or entity who may seek entitlement to a Powerball prize payment in accordance with these Rules, the North Carolina Lottery Act, NCEL policies and procedures. No Claimant may assert rights different from the rights acquired by the original Purchaser at the time of purchase. A submitted claim does not guarantee payment.

Director(s) - The chief officers of the Participating Lotteries or any other persons to whom the Directors' authority is lawfully delegated.

Drawing – The formal process of selecting winning numbers which determine the number of winners for each prize level of the game.

Grand/Jackpot Prize – The top prize of the Powerball game.

North Carolina Government & Politics Jack D. Fleer,1994-01-01 North Carolina has been a leader in the South and the nation since 1775 when it became First in Freedom by calling for its independence from British rule Throughout its history the state has had a reputation as a progressive force This book offers both an assessment and an examination of the realities of the state s leadership Analyzing a wide range of political actors and organizations which includes the state legislature the governor and executive branch the judiciary political parties interest groups and the media Fleer illuminates North Carolina s rich political history its evolving constitutional order and its changing political culture Although revealing a pattern of elitist paternalism in the state s political history the book illustrates a parallel pattern of popular participation and control Major forces of change are increasingly defining the state These transitional factors include a significant biracial electorate a stratified society a diverse electorate increasingly varied and mobilized political interest groups a competitive political party system and a more representative political leadership New challenges to the state s future development are its aging population the preparedness of its work force the globalization of its economy the protection of its natural resources and the education of its children for the next century Each new political debate policy choice and election reminds North Carolinians of their fundamental challenge establishing a government by enlightened and effective popular consent Jack D Fleer is a professor of political science at Wake Forest University and the author of North Carolina Politics An Introduction

General Statutes of North Carolina Annotated North Carolina,2006 Volatility in State Spending for Higher Education Jennifer A. Delaney, 2023-10-30 The severity of cuts and the unpredictability in state funding for higher education have garnered headlines across the nation since the turn of the present century In this context the authors in this new groundbreaking volume argue that too little attention is paid to the consequences of volatility in funding as most discussions focus on levels of funding Their research addresses an important blind spot in the academic literature since predictability matters to institutions students families and states In addition the risks of operating in an uncertain financial environment have led to behaviors that are not always in the best interests of states institutions faculty students or the public good
