

Autobiography Rough Draft

My name is Samantha Rose Peluchette and I was born 12 weeks premature on January 3, 1992 in Allegheny General Hospital at 9:36 pm. When I was born I weighed 2 lbs. 13 oz. and I could fit in my dad's hand. My mother, Hope Edwards, was 15 years old and my dad, Daniel Peluchette, was 19 years old. I was in the hospital in an incubator until April because I was born so early.

My mother grew up in Wexford, Pa and went to Pine Richland High School. My dad grew up in Saxonburg, Pa and went to Deer Lakes High School. My grandma, great-grandparents, aunts, and uncles on my mother's side of the family still live in or around Wexford. My mom's father lives in New Castle, Pa. My dad's parents both passed away before I met them, but they lived in Saxonburg, Pa. My dad's brother lives in Tarentum and my dad's aunts and uncles and my great-grandma live in Grove City, Pa. On my mother's side, my great-grandma was Slovakian and my great-grandpa was Polish, German, and Native American. On my dad's side of the family, everyone is Italian. On my mom's side of the family, everyone has been living in western Pennsylvania for as long as any of us can remember, but my grandma says that my great-great-great-grandparents came to America from Poland and Germany. On my dad's side of the family I don't know very many of my family members, so I'm not sure how they came to live in Grove City, Pa.

After I was born, my mom and dad separated and I went to live with my great-grandma until I was seven years old. While I lived with my great-grandma, I went to North Allegheny School District, went to a Baptist church every Sunday, and played with my friends. When I was seven, I moved in with my mom and my now step-dad, Jim. This

Mos, 2009-06-12 Since the 17th century autobiography has an honorable place in the study of history In 1930 the preeminent historian of psychology Edwin Boring writes that a science separated from its history lacks direction and promises a future of uncertain importance To understand what psychology is and what it is becoming the autobiographies of famous psychologists is history at it best Here we find model inquirers of the science who offer a personalized account of themselves and their vocation in the context of the history of the science What is characteristic of many of those who have contributed to an alternate vision of psychological science is that they never considered themselves or were considered by others as belonging to the mainstream of the discipline In considering an alternative history of psychology in autobiography the editor invited contributors whose research and writings have pushed the discipline in other directions pushed its limits and whose scholarship finds its philosophical framework outside the discipline altogether If these contributors may not be model inquirers their scholarship is very much a matter of consequence for those who wish to understand psychology Among the outliers included here are those who devoted themselves to the writing of psychology examining its history theories research and professional practices and who enthusiastically embraced over the course of their lives the discipline as a human science Their influence has been subtle as has been their appeal to many students who affection for the discipline finds its promise in a discerning self awareness and a critical understanding of others and their worlds This volume is not simply a collection of personal chronologies which might inspire or lend appreciation to a younger generation Our contributors write from their personal and professional experience of course but they write of their thinking and understanding of the psyche as an aspect of human life of psychology as an academic form of human sciences inquiry and so bring to bear their scientific and philosophical imagination to their personal challenges in their chosen vocation as psychologists Our contributors cover a broad swath of the second half of the 20th century the century of psychology Nurturing the discipline from within various philosophical social political and cultural roots their autobiographies exemplify marginality if not alienation from the mainstream even as their professional and personal lives give expression to engaged scholarship commitment to vocation and straightforwardly and reflectively a love of the heart From Germany Carl Graumann from France Erika Apfelbaum from Canada David Bakan and Kurt Danziger and from the United States Amedeo Giorgi Robert Rieber and Joseph Rychlak relate their lives to the larger contexts of our times Their personal stories are an integral part of the historiography of our discipline Indeed a contribution to historiography of our discipline is constituted in their autobiographical self presentations for their writings attest as much to their lives as model inquirers as they do to the possibility of psychology as a human science
