

Describing Friend's Character

I have a friend, his name is Dima.

I know him about five years. He amazed me by his intelligence and brainy. He knows the answer on any question. Even if he doesn't know the correct answer, he'll find the way to explain it. I appreciate his optimism and indifference at the same time. When something bad has happened, he is always determined. He says that next time he would be more sense and had learned a lot from that situation.

And next day he behaves as if nothing has happened. Moreover he looks indifferently at some situations that help him not to work up. Dima has got a unique humor; I can't stop smiling when he begins joking. He is unconventional. He looks differently at the world. I can't even imagine what is going on in his head. Also Dima is broad-minded, he is keen on travelling.

He visits different places four times a year, moreover he adore snowboarding, that's why the main part of his trips includes mountains. Dima is easy-going, he can easily find common ground. Nevertheless each person has negative sides of his character. Sometimes Dima is brusque and impolite. His straightforwardness spurns people. If he doesn't gain person, he will deal shortly with him. I don't think that it's bad behavior, but sometimes it goes over the line.

However he is frank and open-hearted. He enjoys having heart-to-heart talk with family and friends. In spite of his imperturbability he is vulnerable deep in his mind. But he won't show it, because he thinks that it points out man's weakness. In conclusion I would like to add that I'm proud that I have such friend. Dima is goal-seeking and ambitious. He knows what he wants and secures his object in any case.

Friends' Weekly Intelligencer, 1897 Handbook of Interpersonal Commitment and Relationship Stability

Jeffrey M. Adams, Warren H. Jones, 1999-09-30 A fundamental assumption underlying the formation of our most important relationships is that they will persist indefinitely into the future As an acquaintanceship turns into a friendship for example both members of this newly formed interpersonal bond are likely to expect that their interactions will become increasingly frequent diverse and intimate over time This expectation is perhaps most apparent in romantically involved couples who through a variety of verbal and symbolic means make explicit pledges to a long lasting relationship In either case it is clear that these relationships represent something valuable to the individuals involved and are pursued with great enthusiasm Virtually all close relationships are formed within the context of mutually rewarding interactions and or strong physical attraction between partners Friends and romantically involved couples alike are drawn to one another because of similarity of attitudes interests and personality and quite simply because they enjoy one another's company This enjoyment coupled with the novelty that characterizes new relationships almost makes the continuation of the relationship a foregone conclusion As relationships progress however their novelty fades conflicts may arise between partners negative life events may occur and the satisfaction that previously characterized the relationships may diminish Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 1997 A hefty one volume reference addressing various facets of the essay Entries are of five types 1 considerations of different types of essay e.g. moral travel autobiographical 2 discussions of major national traditions 3 biographical profiles of writers who have produced a significant body of work in the genre 4 descriptions of periodicals important for their publication of essays and 5 discussions of some especially significant single essays Each entry includes citations for further
