Scattered Pieces Poems Of An Ordinary Life:

Scattered Pieces F. Apollo M. Arenas, 2014-10-31 Scattered Pieces started as a poem which consisted of short random thoughts based on the authors personal experiences Some of these vignettes grew into poems when subsequent experiences galvanized a particular thought enabling the author to build from it a longer and more cohesive form that could stand on its own Some remained short maybe dormant but the author hopes that someday each will bloom and fly off to a place of its own

Shattered Glass Rebecca Carolyn Antonaccio, 2010-05-02 Shattered Glass is a collection of contemporary poetry mainly for youth yet enjoyable to all This poetry collection includes poems on a variety of situations and events such as the environment friendship and equality In this book readers will be placed in the setting of a diversity of poems as you will be able to relate to everyday life Remember just like shattered glass the world is slowly being broken into thousands of pieces of shattered glass Together we can create awareness and positive change in every aspect of life for a better future because you are the future since one voice can change the world even if it is just written words on paper Excerpt from the poem Masquerading Once upon a time once upon a dream And once upon a reality Lived a world of equality No such thing as popularity Now hiding away so difficult to say Disappeared until we turn it around again From all this crazy masquerading

Track of the Mystic Marcianne Kappes, 1994-11 Examines how Jessica Powers integrated her life and time in history with her religious experience to produce a mystical poetry and spiritual vision

Marrying Jesus in Medieval and Early Modern Northern Europe Rabia Gregory, 2016-09-17 The first full length study of the notion of marriage to Jesus in late medieval and early modern popular culture this book treats the transmission and transformation of ideas about this concept as a case study in the formation of religious belief and popular culture Marrying Jesus in Medieval and Early Modern Northern Europe provides a history of the dispersion of theology about the bride of Christ in the period between the twelfth and seventeenth centuries and explains how this metaphor initially devised for a religious elite became integral to the laity's pursuit of salvation Unlike recent publications on the bride of Christ which explore the gendering of sanctity or the poetics of religious eroticism this is a study of popular religion told through devotional media and other technologies of salvation Marrying Jesus argues against the heteronormative interpretation that brides of Christ should be female by reconstructing the cultural production of brides of Christ in late medieval Europe A central assertion of this book is that by the fourteenth century worldly sexually active brides of Christ both male and female were no longer aberrations Analyzing understudied vernacular sources from the late medieval period including sermons early printed books spiritual diaries letters songs and hagiographies Rabia Gregory shows how marrying Jesus was central to late medieval lay piety and how the chaste bride of Christ developed out of sixteenth century religious disputes

The Prophet's Ascension Christiane J. Gruber, Frederick S. Colby, 2010-02 The tales of the mi raj describe the prophet Muhammad's journey through the heavens his encounters with prophets and angels and his visit to heaven and hell The tales are among Islam's most popular appearing in Arabic Persian and Turkish literature and in later adaptations throughout the Muslim world Often serving as narratives designed to promote the worldview of particular Muslim groups the tales were also a means for communities to construct rules of normative behavior and ritual practices and were used to assert the superiority of Islam over other religions The essays in this collection discuss the formation of this narrative the mi raj as a missionary text its various adaptations its application to esoteric thought and its use in performance and ritual

Catullus and the Traditions of Ancient Poetry Arthur Leslie Wheeler,2023-04-28 This volume part of the esteemed Sather Classical Lectures series explores the enduring legacy of Catullus and his intricate relationship with the traditions of Graeco Roman poetry Delivered at the University of California Berkeley in 1928 these lectures aim to illuminate Catullus poetic genius by tracing his debts to the literary past With a philologist's precision the book delves into how the poet's originality intertwined with his influences offering a comprehensive analysis of his connections to earlier works particularly through newly examined materials like the fragments of Callimachus Coma Berenices Through a blend of accessible discussion and detailed scholarship the volume bridges popular and academic approaches making it an engaging resource for both specialists and enthusiasts of classical literature The author combines rigorous research with an engaging narrative style to examine Catullus artistry and historical significance This exploration highlights his importance in shaping both ancient and modern poetic traditions while the appended notes provide bibliographic references for further inquiry Designed to both entertain and educate this hybrid work captures the essence of Catullus literary world and offers readers a rich understanding of his creative methods and their broader cultural impact Perfect for those with an appreciation of classical poetry the book serves as a vital contribution to the study of one of Rome's most celebrated poets This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1934

The Academy and Literature ,1912 Four Quartets in the Light of the Chinese Jar Shudong

Chen,2020-12-04 Four Quartets in the Light of the Chinese Jar discusses how Four Quartets should be explored afresh with a prosodic philosophically sustained interdisciplinary and cross cultural literary approach in ways as the often overlooked pivotal image of the Chinese jar so indicates in the great sequence the pivotal image suggests the subtle but vital elixir from both The shores of Asia and the Edgware Road which are brought together as they had been brought together to The Waste Land With a steady focus on the function words mediated and phonemes facilitated and autochthonously void suggesting verbal transformation the book shows how the verbal transformation especially of the cases with parts of speech in the live context makes Four Quartets truly a rhythmical creation of meaningful beauty it demonstrates how the meaningful poetic beauty culminates in a quintessential state or being of poetry not merely being poetic particularly in terms of its prosodically sustained philosophical tenets which are often so serendipitously transformed into virtuoso mastery of verbal music As genuine poetry the great sequence flows freely from inside out at once in accordance with and in spirit of any given rhythmical form or rhyming pattern

Maneater Anavey Andes,2015-09-26 How do you go from dreaming about becoming a nun to devouring three young men in one weekend How do you go from living behind the Iron Curtain in a country hermetically sealed from the world to making love on four continents Maneater is a coming of age story of one woman who decides to live life on her own terms Her journey will take you through dilemmas struggles and heartache but it will also walk you through exotic places such as the Phra Nang cave in Thailand filled with carved dildos and the golden palaces floating markets and the red light district of Bangkok You will take in the view from the shadow of the Christ the Savior statue in Rio de Janeiro You will feel the heat of New Orleans and walk into a quaint wedding chapel in Lake Tahoe Her stories will take you back in time to an island at the tip of the Great Lakes where time stood still and it will take you on a road trip across Transylvania right up to Dracula s Castle You will walk down the street with Romanian revolutionaries and with the leather clad men at the Folsom Street Fair in San Francisco You will dance at the Carnival in Rio and you will join in on the water fight at the Songkran festival in Bangkok You ll also meet the men she encountered along the way the blond street musician from Vienna the dimpled bellman from San Francisco the blue eyed surfer from Texas the handsome tuxedoed bouncer off spring of Afghani warriors the green eyed salsa dancer from San Salvador and many many more And you will fall in love with Moon her young prince whose sexual coming of age begins where her journey ends
