

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a modern interior space. It features curved, translucent blue glass walls that create a sense of depth and reflection. The floor is a bright, polished white. In the center, there are two white, rounded armchairs. To the left and right of the chairs are small, round white tables with thin black legs. Each table holds several small, blue, cylindrical objects that look like perfume bottles or decorative items. The overall aesthetic is clean, contemporary, and serene.

Salons And Spas The Architecture Of Beauty:

Salons and Spas Julie Sinclair Eakin, 2005      Salons and Spas, Spas and Salons features the design details of the best and newest beauty shops and spas on the block and uncovers through interviews with the designers what makes them so appealing memorable and desirable      The American Beauty Industry Encyclopedia Julie Willett, 2010-05-11 This is the first encyclopedia to focus exclusively on the many aspects of the American beauty industry covering both its diverse origins and its global reach The American Beauty Industry Encyclopedia is the first compilation to focus exclusively on this pervasive business covering both its diverse origins and global reach More than 100 entries were chosen specifically to illuminate the most iconic aspects of the industry's past and present exploring the meaning of beauty practices and products often while making analytical use of categories such as gender race sexuality and stages of the lifecycle Focusing primarily on the late 19th and 20th century American beauty industry an era of unprecedented expansion the encyclopedia covers ancient practices and the latest trends and provides a historical examination of institutions entrepreneurs styles and technological innovations It covers for example the 1911 Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire as well as how Asian women today are having muscle fiber removed from their calves to create a more Western look Entries also explore how the industry reflects social movements and concerns that are inextricably bound to religion feminism the health and safety of consumers and workers the treatment of animals and environmental sustainability      Exhibition Design Llorenç Bonet, 2006-07 Exhibition design has become a significant architectural way to present an idea or a product to communicate its meaning to show its beauty and ideally to increase sales This book shows how trade fair and exhibition design projects have evolved into a perfect demonstration of architectural art an art that combines the forming of space with the use of materials and lighting to achieve a convincing narrative and setting Whether we find them in trade fairs or in museums this book gathers the best recent installations featured through full color pictures drawing plans and sketches and supplemented with descriptive text with practical information on manufacturers furniture and materials      Portico University of Michigan. College of Architecture and Urban Planning, 2003      Clocks and Clouds Lilian Pfaff, 2017-06-26 Frank Escher GuneWardena founded in Los Angeles in 1996 reached international recognition through a range of projects commercial spaces treated as conceptual art works hillside residences representing poetic responses to particular site conditions work in historic preservation including such icons as the Eames House and John Lautner's Chemosphere in Los Angeles Their collaborations with artists such as Sharon Lockhart Mike Kelley and Stephen Prina testify to their presence in the art world Frank Escher and Ravi GuneWardena are in part scholars artists architectural historians designers and architects Don Albrecht Curator of Architecture and Design Museum of the City of New York      Emotion in Motion Mike Robinson, David Picard, 2016-05-06 What happens when tourists scream with fear shout with anger and frustration weep with joy and delight or even faint in the face of revealed beauty How can certain sites affect some tourists so deeply that they require hospitalisation and psychiatric treatment What are the inner contours of tourist experience and how does it relate to specific emotional cultures What are the consequences of the emotional cultures of tourists upon destinations How are differences in emotional culture mobilized and played out in the transnational contact zones of international tourism While many books have engaged with the structural frames of tourist practice and experience this is the first to deal with the emotional dimensions of tourism travel and contact and the ways in which they can transform tourists destinations and travel cultures through emotional engagements The book brings together an international array of scholars from anthropology psychiatry history cultural geography and critical tourism studies to explore how the movement to and through the realms of exotic people wild natures subliminal art spirit worlds metropolitan cities and sexualised others variably provoke emotions peak experiences travel syndromes and inner dialogues The authors show how tourism challenges us to engage with concepts of self other time nature sex the body and death Through a set of ethnographic and historic cases they demonstrate that such engagements usually have little to do with the actual destination but rather are deeply anchored in personal memories repressed fears and desires and the collective imaginaries of our societies
