Saul Bass Jan-Christopher Horak,2014-11-18 Iconic graphic designer and Academy Award winning filmmaker Saul Bass 1920 1996 defined an innovative era in cinema His title sequences for films such as Otto Preminger s The Man with the Golden Arm 1955 and Anatomy of a Murder 1959 Alfred Hitchcock s Vertigo 1958 and North by Northwest 1959 and Billy Wilder s The Seven Year Itch 1955 introduced the idea that opening credits could tell a story setting the mood for the movie to follow Bass's stylistic influence can be seen in popular Hollywood franchises from the Pink Panther to James Bond as well as in more contemporary works such as Steven Spielberg's Catch Me If You Can 2002 and television's Mad Men. The first book to examine the life and work of this fascinating figure, Saul Bass' Anatomy of Film Design explores the designer's revolutionary career and his lasting impact on the entertainment and advertising industries. Jan Christopher Horak traces Bass from his humble beginnings as a self-taught artist to his professional peak when auteur directors like Stanley Kubrick, Robert Aldrich, and Martin Scorsese sought him as a collaborator. He also discusses how Bass incorporated aesthetic concepts borrowed from modern art in his work, presenting them in a new way that made them easily recognizable to the public. This long-overdue book sheds light on the creative process of the undisputed master of film title design, a man whose multidimensional talents and unique ability to blend high art and commercial imperatives profoundly influenced generations of filmmakers, designers, and advertisers.
