The Third Nero Lindsey Davis, 2017-07-11

In 90 A.D. following the Saturninus revolt in Germany, the Emperor Domitian has become more paranoid about traitors and dissenters around him. This leads to several senators and even provincial governors facing charges and being executed for supposed crimes of conspiracy and insulting the emperor. Wanting to root out all the supports of Saturninus from the Senate, one of Domitian's men offers to hire Flavia Alba to do some intelligence work. Flavia Alba, daughter and chip off the old block of Marcus Didius Falco, would rather avoid any and all court intrigue than you very much. But she's in a bit of a bind. Her wedding is fast approaching, her fiancé is still recovering slowly from being hit by a lightning bolt, and she's the sole support of their household. So with more than a few reservations, she agrees to investigate. Adding to the confusion is yet another Nero pretender who has shown up in Parthia and is trying to rally support for his claim for the throne. With intrigue upon intrigue swirling around the capital city, it's up to Albia to uncover what is and isn't the real threat. Enemies at Home Lindsey Davis, 2014-07-15

There are rules for private informers: accepting a new case, never take on clients who cannot pay you, never do favours for friends, don't work with relatives. If like me you are a woman, keep clear of men you find attractive. Will I never learn? In Ancient Rome, the number of slaves was far greater than that of free citizens. As a result, often the people Romans feared most were the enemies at home, the slaves under their own roofs. Because of this, Roman law decreed that if the head of a household was murdered at home and the culprit wasn't quickly discovered, his slaves, all of them guilty or not, were presumed responsible and were put to death without exception. When a couple is found dead in their own bedroom and their house burglarized, some of their household slaves know what is about to happen to them. They flee to the Temple of Ceres, which by tradition is respected as a haven for refugees. This is where Flavia Alba comes in. The authorities, under pressure from all sides, need a solution. Albia, a private informer just like her father Marcus Didius Falco, is asked to solve the murders in this mystery from Lindsey Davis.
