The Primary Curriculum Linda Hargreaves, Janet Moyles, 2002-09-11. This book is concerned with the relationships and tensions in education between children's needs and society's demands, questions which primary teachers everywhere face on a daily basis, such as how does society's view of children and childhood affect teaching and learning, how do the dictates of the education system, including a national curriculum, shape teaching practice, how do the conventions of classroom practice fit with teachers' own beliefs and values. The first part of the book offers a basic framework for thinking about primary curricula from the perspectives raised by these questions, whilst the second part presents a range of international views on the primary curriculum from Australia, New Zealand, South East Asia, Europe and the USA. Linguistics and Language
