For full character details and histories see the articles for each character. Kimber Henry is a fictional character in the American television series Nip/Tuck portrayed by Kelly Carlson. Kimber is a one-time model, pornographic actress and pornography director and producer. She is one of six series regulars usually at the center of the show's sometimes boundary pushing and controversial storylines. Originally a guest star in the pilot episode, Kimber was promoted to a recurring character for the show's first two seasons before finally becoming a series regular in season three in part due to both critical and audience acclaim for actress Kelly Carlson's performance. A troubled blonde bombshell with an anachronistic hairstyle inspired by Marilyn Monroe, Kimber was initially envisaged as a blond tarty model from South Beach until Carlson instilled vulnerability into her performance ultimately rendering Kimber empathetic. Carlson is also responsible for some of Kimber's quirks and self-exploration and has said she enjoys playing a character who is trying to find herself. Series creator Ryan Murphy has noted Kimber's many incarnations through each additional season her constant reinvention reflective of the series itself. In an interview with Entertainment Weekly published online a day after the airing of Kimber's suicide episode, actress Kelly Carlson confirmed Kimber's death but promised that she reappears in visions and as Christian's conscience.
