Murder in Canton Robert Hans van Gulik, 1993. In his attempts to solve three perplexing murders, Judge Dee uncovers a plot to take over key positions in the Tang government.

National Union Catalog, 1973. The Transculturation of Judge Dee Stories Yan WEI, 2022-09-07. This book views the Dutch sinologist Robert van Gulik's Judge Dee mysteries as a hybrid East-West form of detective fiction and uses the concept of transculturation to discuss their hybrid nature with respect to their sources, production, and influence. The Judge Dee mysteries authored by Robert van Gulik (1910-1967) were the first detective stories to be set in ancient China. These hybrid narratives combine Chinese historical figures, traditional Chinese crime literature, and Chinese history and material culture with ratiocinative methods and psychoanalytic themes familiar from Western detective fiction. This new subject and detective image won a global readership, and the book discusses the innovations that van Gulik's Judge Dee mysteries brought to both Chinese gong'an literature and Western detective fiction. Furthermore, it introduces contemporary writers from different countries who specialize in writing detective fiction or gong'an novels set in ancient China. The book will meet the interest of fans of Judge Dee stories throughout the world and will also appeal to both students and researchers of comparative literature, Chinese literature, and crime novels studies.

Dictionary of Literary Biography, 1982. The National Union Catalogs, 1963-1964. Diversity and Detective Fiction Kathleen Gregory Klein, 1999. The distinguishing characteristic of the book is its mix of essays focusing on teaching cultural diversity in the classroom and illustrating diversity through fiction to the general readers.

BOOK JACKET Robert van Gulik and His Chinese Sherlock Holmes Sabrina Yuan Hao, 2023-09-20. In the post-war mid-century, Robert van Gulik produced a series of stories set in Imperial China and featuring a Chinese Judge, Judge Dee. This book examines the author's unprecedented effort in hybridising two heterogeneous crime writing traditions: traditional Chinese gong'an court case fiction and its Anglo-American counterpart, bringing to light how his fiction draws elements from these two traditions for plots, narrative features, visual images, and gender representation. Relying on research on various sources and literary traditions, it provides illumination of the historical contexts centring on the cultural interaction and connectedness that occurred during the multidirectional global flows of the Judge Dee texts in both western and Chinese markets This study contributes to current scholarship on crime fiction by questioning its predominantly Eurocentric focus and the divisive post colonial approach often adopted in accessing works concerning foreign peoples and cultures Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1970
