

The book cover features a large, detailed needle-felted chef character on the left. The chef has a large white toque, a thick mustache, and is wearing a white double-breasted jacket with a black and white checkered bow tie. He is holding a whisk in his right hand, which is positioned over a pink box. In his left hand, he holds a small, multi-layered cake topped with a red heart. The background is a light blue gradient. The title 'NEEDLE FELTING' is written in a stylized, bold font inside a decorative white frame with a red ribbon. Below the title, the subtitle 'Sculpting People With Wool' is written in a simpler font. The author's name 'by Terese Cato' is located at the bottom right. At the bottom of the cover, there are three small inset images showing different stages of the needle felting process: a ball of wool being shaped, a needle being used to add detail, and a finished, small, round felted object.
