School Science Practical Work in Africa Umesh Ramnarain,2020-06-01 School Science Practical Work in Africa presents the scope of research and practice of science practical work in African schools It brings together prominent science educators and researchers from Africa to share their experience and findings on pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on school science practical work The book highlights trends and patterns in the enactment and role of practical work across African countries Practical work is regarded as intrinsic to science teaching and learning and the form of practical work that is strongly advocated is inquiry based learning which signals a definite paradigm shift from the traditional teacher dominated to a learner centered approach The book provides empirical research on approaches to practical work contextual factors in the enactment of practical work and professional development in teaching practical work This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of science education and educational policy The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next

Drinking from Graveyard Wells Yvette Lisa Ndlovu, 2023-03-07 Even in death who has ownership over Black women's bodies Questions like this lurk between the lines of this stunning collection of stories that engage with African women's histories both personal and generational Their history is not just one thing there is heartbreak and pain and joy and flying and magic so much magic An avenging spirit takes on the patriarchy from beyond the grave An immigrant woman undergoes a naturalization ceremony in an imagined American state that demands that immigrants pay a toll of the thing they love the most A first generation Zimbabwean American woman haunted by generational trauma is willing to pay the ultimate price to take her pain away giving up her memories A neighborhood gossip wakes up to find that houses are mysteriously vanishing in the night A shapeshifting freedom fighter leaves a legacy of resistance to her granddaughter In Drinking from Graveyard Wells Yvette Lisa Ndlovu assembles poignantly reflective stories that center the voices of African women charting their own Black history through the ages Ndlovu's stories play with genre from softly surreal to deeply fantastical Each narrative is wrapped in the literary eloquence and tradition of southern African mythology transporting readers into the lives of African women who have fought across space and time to be seen Drawing on her own early experiences as a Zimbabwean living under the Mugabe dictatorship Ndlovu's stories are grounded in truth and empathy Ndlovu boldly offers up alternative interpretations of a past and a present that speculates upon the everyday lives of a people disregarded Her words explore the erasure of African women while highlighting their beauty and limitless magic Immersed in worlds both fantastical and familiar readers find themselves walking alongside these women grieving their pain and celebrating their joy all against the textured backdrop of Zimbabwe Validating Technological Innovation David

Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders Global
