Cross-border Languages Karsten Legère, 1998 Bibiliokerafi Ya Puo Ya Setswana : Bibiliokerafi Ya Dibuka, Dimakasini, Dipamfolêtê Le Mayakgatiso Go Fitlha Ka Ngwaga Wa 1980 Marguerite Andrée Peters, Matthew Mathêthê Public Health Communication Challenges to Minority and Indigenous Communities Aiseng, Kealeboga, Fadipe, Israel A., 2024-04-30 Language has emerged as both a powerful bridge and a formidable barrier in the realm of public health communication The ongoing COVID 19 pandemic has highlighted a significant challenge faced by minority and indigenous communities particularly in regions of Sub Saharan Africa It s a challenge deeply rooted in the historical use of colonial languages English French and Spanish to disseminate critical health information For many this has translated into a linguistic exclusion depriving them of access to essential resources and a voice in matters of national interest This issue transcends mere communication it touches upon the fundamental rights of individuals to participate in their own healthcare decisions and influences their sense of belonging and citizenship Public Health Communication Challenges to Minority and Indigenous Communities proposes a solution with a transformative potential This groundbreaking edited volume invites scholars from diverse fields to contribute their research shedding light on the linguistic dimensions of public health communication during the COVID 19 era By investigating the impact of language on various aspects of society from medical information to education this book seeks to synthesize the wealth of sociolinguistic research into an accessible framework It's an invitation to explore the role of language in shaping our perceptions of citizenship belonging and South African Literary Studies Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-09-22 The collection delves empowerment into crucial themes and debates in South African literature addressing the innovative aesthetics of Black poetry the political complexities of white writing non fiction s significance and the role of geography in South Africa's regional fiction It particularly examines how literary works have engaged with the country's evolving post apartheid identity and its place in global contexts South African Literary Studies A Safundi Reader on Genre Method and Ideas 1999 2024 marks the culminating volume in a series celebrating Safundi s twenty fifth anniversary This comprehensive collection showcases the journal s evolution from its initial focus on US South African comparative histories to its embrace of a wider range of interdisciplinary and literary studies Divided into seven sections this volume explores a diverse set of literary approaches including transnational comparisons featuring influential figures like Maya Angelou Alan Paton Zora Neale Hurston and Bessie Head It further addresses the works of poets and novelists who have shaped South African literature including Lesego Rampolokeng Keorapetse Kgositsile and J M Coetzee while also offering illuminating interviews with writers such as Chris Abani C A Davids and Mark Behr Through its exploration of various genres methods and ideas this volume retains Safundi s founding spirit of examining comparative and transnational connections while also demonstrating how literary criticism has become indispensable in defining South African culture and identity after apartheid Of Revelation and Revolution,

Volume 2 John L. Comaroff, Jean Comaroff, 2009-02-15 In the second of a proposed three volume study John and Jean Comaroff continue their exploration of colonial evangelism and modernity in South Africa Moving beyond the opening moments of the encounter between the British Nonconformist missions and the Southern Tswana peoples Of Revelation and Revolution Volume II explores the complex transactions both epic and ordinary among the various dramatis personae along this colonial frontier The Comaroffs trace many of the major themes of twentieth century South African history back to these formative encounters The relationship between the British evangelists and the Southern Tswana engendered complex exchanges of goods signs and cultural markers that shaped not only African existence but also bourgeois modernity back home in England We see in this volume how the colonial attempt to civilize Africa set in motion a dialectical process that refashioned the everyday lives of all those drawn into its purview creating hybrid cultural forms and potent global forces which persist in the postcolonial age This fascinating study shows how the initiatives of the colonial missions collided with local traditions giving rise to new cultural practices new patterns of production and consumption new senses of style and beauty and new forms of class distinction and ethnicity As noted by reviewers of the first volume the Comaroffs have succeeded in providing a model for the study of colonial encounters By insisting on its dialectical nature they demonstrate that colonialism can no longer be seen as a one sided relationship between the conquering and the conquered It is rather a complex system of reciprocal determinations one whose legacy is very much with us today South African national bibliography, 1999 Classified list with author and title index The Routledge Companion to Global Indigenous History Ann McGrath, Lynette Russell, 2021-09-30 The Routledge Companion to Global Indigenous History presents exciting new innovations in the dynamic field of Indigenous global history while also outlining ethical political and practical research Indigenous histories are not merely concerned with the past but have resonances for the politics of the present and future ranging across vast geographical distances and deep time periods The volume starts with an introduction that explores definitions of Indigenous peoples followed by six thematic sections which each have a global spread European uses of history and the positioning of Indigenous people as history s outsiders their migrations and mobilities colonial encounters removals and diasporas memory identities and narratives deep histories and pathways towards future Indigenous histories that challenge the nature of the history discipline itself This book illustrates the important role of Indigenous history and Indigenous knowledges for contemporary concerns including climate change spirituality and religious movements gender negotiations modernity and mobility and the meaning of nation and the global Reflecting the state of the art in Indigenous global history the contributors suggest exciting new directions in the field examine its many research challenges and show its resonances for a global politics of the present and future This book is invaluable reading for students in both undergraduate and postgraduate Indigenous history courses Botswana Notes and Records ,1975 The People's Paper Peter Limb, 2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper

Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mgqweth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People's Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People's Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented Books for Africa ,1955 Herders, Warriors, And Traders John G Galaty,2019-03-04 African pastoralists have been devastated by drought famine and dislocation yet herding remains the most viable system of support for the inhabitants of the vast arid and semi arid zones Using case studies of the Tswana and the San the interlacustrine pastoralists the Masai and Mursi of East Africa and the multi ethnic regional systems of Lak

Arabic in Context, 2017-06-06 The writing of Arabic's linguistic history is by definition an interdisciplinary effort the result of collaboration between historical linguists epigraphists dialectologists and historians The present volume seeks to catalyse a dialogue between scholars in various fields who are interested in Arabic s past and to illustrate how much there is to be gained by looking beyond the traditional sources and methods It contains 15 innovative studies ranging from pre Islamic epigraphy to the modern spoken dialect and from comparative Semitics to Middle Arabic The combination of these perspectives hopes to stand as an important methodological intervention encouraging a shift in the way Arabic s linguistic history is written Print, Text and Book Cultures in South Africa Andrew van der Vlies, 2012-09-01 An explanation of the unique role of the book and book collecting in South Africa due to the apartheid This book explores the power of print and the politics of the book in South Africa from a range of disciplinary perspectives historical bibliographic literary critical sociological and cultural studies The essays collected here by leading international scholars address a range of topics as varied as the role of print cultures in contests over the nature of the colonial public sphere in the nineteenth century orthography iimbongi orature and the canon book collecting and libraries print and transnationalism Indian Ocean cosmopolitanisms books in war how the fates of South African texts locally and globally have been affected by their material instantiations photocomics and other ephemera censorship during and after apartheid books about art and books as art local academic publishing and the challenge of book history for literary and cultural criticism in contemporary South Africa
