War and Negative Revelation Michael S. Yandell, 2022-03-21 From the concrete experience of war Michael S Yandell constructs a phenomenology of negative revelation in which false or distorted claims of goodness and justice disintegrate becoming meaningless Yandell argues that the disintegration of meaning in war is itself a meaningful experience revealing comes to signify the presence of goodness and justice through the profound experience of their absence The heart of this work adds a layer of complexity or depth to the term moral injury as a negative revelation Yandell emphasizes the context and logic of war itself beyond the actions of individuals paying specific attention to the U S led Global War on Terror Moral injury as a negative revelation is a disintegration of false normative claims of goodness and justice as well as a disintegration of one s sense of self oriented toward those normative claims This disintegration is prompted by the recognition of life in the midst of war s diminishment of life
