the first to gather and transcribe The letters reveal many sides of Bierce that he deliberately concealed in his literary work the caring father who keenly felt the deaths of his two sons and took constant interest in the welfare of his only daughter the literary giant of San Francisco who gathered around him a substantial cadre of disciples whose work he encouraged and meticulously criticized the vigorous castigator of chicanery hypocrisy and injustice wherever he saw it and the author of coyly flirtatious letters to a number of female correspondents For the first time a well rounded picture of Bierce the man and writer emerges in his own words The volume ends chillingly with Bierce s last surviving letter written from Chihuahua Mexico on December 26 1913 which concludes As for me I leave here tomorrow for an unknown destination Bierce was never heard from again The letters have been scrupulously edited from manuscript sources and exhaustively annotated to elucidate obscure historical literary and other references
