Daly, 2014-10-27 Winner of the Christine M Alder Book Prize in 2015 from the Australian and New Zealand Society of Criminology Historical abuse of children is a worldwide phenomenon This book assesses the enablers of abuse and the reasons it took so long for officials to respond It analyzes redress for institutional abuse in two countries Canada and Australia using first hand accounts of survivors experiences St. Joseph and His World Mike Aquilina, 2021 A TREMENDOUS BREAKTHROUGH in the study of St Joseph There are few subjects so challenging to authors as St Joseph So says scholar Scott Hahn in his foreword to this book Yet the pages that follow give not merely glimpses but vistas of St Joseph s world Hahn continues You ll learn about Nazareth and how it was created almost ex nihilo shortly before Joseph s birth You ll learn about religious practice and education in that place and time You ll travel to Egypt and encounter the fascinating settlements of Jews in that land You ll also find out how a carpenter worked in those days what tools he used what items he crafted where he got his training and how he got to and from his job sites This book provides an imaginative entry into one of the most important lives in all of history a life too often obscured by later legends

well as diagrams of the kinds of ships that appear in the stories Criticism includes fifteen essays representing both new and established voices The essays are arranged by story with the focus on Conrad s major themes colonialism narrative gender and race Albert J Guerard Lillian Nayder Mark D Larabee Fredric Jameson F R Leavis and John G Peters are among the contributors A chronology of Conrad s life and work and a selected bibliography are also included British Working Class women authors (born before 1962) a list Stefan Szczelkun ,2025-06-07 A collection of Wikipedia articles edited reformatted and with additions In chronological order References and sections on non literary activity are sometimes omitted hopefully not to the point of misrepresenting the author which might include feminist or political activism To my surprise the biographical material on Wikipedia was sometimes mesmerising although it was uneven Where there were gaps I have tried to fill them from other sources Refer back to the wikipedia articles for more context and references in some cases and if you have a verified source of information please update the Wikipedia article Wikipedia is published under a creative commons licence So this compilation also carries a creative commons licence Introduction Looking through Sarah Richardson s Writing on the Line 1996 I was struck by how many of the working class women writers were from North America and how many more were poets Howard Slater had made a list of British working class male novelists and I selected British woman writers from Writing on the Line and found that most of them now have Wikipedia pages I first made a list of links Wanting to take this further I first looked to focus on novels and short story writers but this category started to break up as many writers wrote in many idioms producing fact fiction poetry plays screenwriting and journalism I decided on an arbitrary cut off point of writers born before 1962 When I first made the list I was thinking how few working class women novelists had been published in this period But then the lists of books by each author started to stack up and there s plenty to read and much that I missed even really hearing about Of course it focuses on the most successful others who produced a community published autobiography or self published novel did not get a Wikipedia page and they should really be included every life counts Others only published an autobiography perhaps in the last years of life but were extraordinary writers and people We could also discuss the genre snobbery in literary circles that puts crime young peoples literature romantic and fantasy fiction and perhaps historical based narratives in a lower category than the novel Liahona ,1912
