Being Black and British Dermot Daly, 2025-09-22 Being Black and British Before During and After Drama School is about being Black being British and being an actor before during and after training Written by Black writers working in and around the British performative industries this book offers practical and theoretical tools to take into the classroom studio rehearsal room mind body and heart focalised unapologetically through being Black in Britain Structured across three acts it covers themes present on the road to drama school such as youth theatre the texts studied and early experiences in theatre spaces drama school training with practical suggestions to encourage and embolden Black actors and the world of the profession ensuring that mental health making work and a sense of what can be offered by Black actors is made clear This book is a call to action and a challenge to all those who teach lecture direct parent produce cast and or train Black performers in Britain and those performers themselves to listen more ask more feel more and be more

Psychology Geoffrey Shoesmith, 2014-03-25 This book provides simple clear in depth explanations of all the topics in the AQA GCSE specification 4180 syllabus but it will prove invaluable to students at many levels on many courses and to the independent reader It can be used as a stand alone home study course as a classroom text as a reference text or just for pleasure for those who love to think about what makes people tick Psychology describes up to date research as well as some classic psychology studies and even debunks one or two psychology research myths It leads the reader through all the topics in the syllabus as a teacher would in a classroom setting Topics are presented as a series of lessons followed by Check Your Understanding sections which are designed to help you check and retain the information in each lesson An assessment record provided at the end of the book will help you keep track of your progress Lessons are interactive with many opportunities to jot down your thoughts and reactions reflect on how a topic relates to your own experience discuss with other people and become more involved with the material presented Students can pinpoint the topics they are studying for GCSE by using the table mapping the GCSE specification against the lessons in this book For those studying outside formal classrooms there are guidelines about how best to approach your studies The book assumes that readers have no previous knowledge of psychology and among the topics covered are Conformity and Obedience would you press a button to kill someone just because you are told to do so Many people would it seems Sex and Gender do girls and boys men and women behave so differently If so why Memory how does memory work and how accurate is it Non Verbal Communication do we reveal our true feelings in our body language Development of Personality what exactly is Anti Social Personality Disorder Prejudice and Discrimination are we bound to discriminate against people who are unlike us Learning how to remove your fear of spiders snakes flying open spaces or anything else using the principles of learning Aggression is aggression born into us Is it in our hormones Or do we learn to fight Research Methods and the Ethics of Psychology psychology is based on evidence not just ideas But what type of study constitutes good evidence and how should we treat the people in our studies

Keys Maths David Baker, 2002 Published for the AQA Modular specification at GCSE this resource covers the content order and approach of this modular course with all of Key Maths popular features

The researchED Guide to Assessment: An evidence-informed guide for teachers Sarah Donarski, Tom Bennett, 2020-07-20 A teacher's job is to create an environment where our students' engagement in learning proceeds towards an intended direction In order for this to occur we must form a bridge between the teaching of material in the classroom and how the learning of that information is being processed and manipulated by our students The only way we can do this effectively is through the process of assessment Recent theoretical history on how to effectively establish and implement assessment strategies into policy has caused much confusion it is high time to consider how assessment marking and feedback have changed over the years so that conversations about how best to move forward can begin In this researchED Guide to Assessment Sarah Donarski brings together chapters by Dylan Wiliam Tom Sherrington Alison Peacock and many others to consider the debates critique the strategies and find solutions that not only better the progress of pupils but also assist the wellbeing and manageability of workload for staff
