Language Teaching and Learning Mario Cal, Francisco Javier Fernández, Lidia Gómez, 2010-02-19 This volume contains a selection of the papers seminars and workshops presented in the First International Conference on English Language Teaching and Learning ICELT1 held at the University of Santiago Spain in September 2008 as well as a number of valuable original contributions by other specialists who were involved in the conference It aims to represent the views of teachers scholars researchers teacher trainers and curriculum developers from all over the world from the USA and Japan to Europe It is addressed to ELT teachers researchers and professionals who want to reflect upon and develop their knowledge and practice of current issues in English language teaching and learning Current problems in many of the areas of ELT are given different solutions depending on the context in which respective contributors conduct their work It is precisely this international perspective that makes this volume unique and illustrative of different realities with a similar objective in mind the implementation and improvement of English language teaching The various contributions have been organised in four main sections that correspond to the major focal topics of the conference teacher training and development classroom management and practice new technologies and language teaching and research on learner language

SLA Research and Materials Development for Language Learning Brian Tomlinson, 2016-05-20 SLA Research and Materials Development for Language Learning is the only book available to focus on the interaction between second language acquisition theory and materials development for language learning It consists of contributions written by experts in SLA experts in materials development researchers who have expertise in both fields and introductions and conclusions by the editor The book is organized into four major sections position statements materials driven by SLA theory evaluations of materials in relation to SLA theory and proposals for action that offer a diverse range of perspectives while maintaining a cohesive and comprehensive overview on the subject This book is ideal for post graduate courses in applied linguistics and second language acquisition and for researchers interested in the relationship between SLA and materials development

Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics David Block, John Gray, Marnie Holborow, 2013-03-01 This book explores neoliberalism a view of the world that puts the market at its centre from the perspective of applied linguistics Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics argues that while applied linguistics has become more interdisciplinary in orientation it has ignored or downplayed the role of political economy namely the way in which social political and economic factors relate to one another within the context of a capitalist economy The authors take the view that engagement with political economy is central to any fully rounded analysis of language and language related issues in the world today and their collaboration in this volume represents an initial attempt to redress what they perceive to be an imbalance in the field The book begins with a discussion of neoliberalism and an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology impacts on language This is followed by a discussion of how globalization and identity have been conceptualised in applied linguistics in ways which have ignored the political centrality of class a concept which the authors see as integral to their perspective The book concludes with an analysis of the ways in which neoliberal ideology plays out in two key areas of applied linguistics language teaching and language teacher education Neoliberalism and Applied Linguistics is essential reading for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in applied linguistics Tasks for Language Teachers Martin Parrott,1993-05-13 This book contains 40 tasks of two types discussion tasks and classroom based tasks Social Interaction and L2 Classroom Discourse Olcay Sert,2015-08-19 This book offers a close investigation of interactional practices in L2 classrooms With an emphasis on the multimodal and multilingual resources this is an essential study for researchers and postgraduate students in TESOL and Applied Linguistics Second Language Acquisition in Action Andrea Nava,Luciana Pedrazzini,2018-03-22 Despite the key role played by second language acquisition SLA courses in linguistics teacher education and language teaching degrees participants often struggle to bridge the gap between SLA theories and their many applications in the classroom In order to overcome the transfer problem from theory to practice Andrea Nava and Luciana Pedrazzini present SLA principles through the actions and words of teachers and learners Second Language Acquisition in Action identifies eight important SLA principles and involves readers in an experiential approach which enables them to explore these principles in action Each chapter is structured around three stages experience and reflection conceptualisation and restructuring and planning Discussion questions and tasks represent the core of the book These help readers in the process of experiencing SLA research and provide them with opportunities to try their hands at different areas of language teachers professional expertise Aimed at those on applied linguistics MA courses TESOL EFL trainees and in service teachers Second Language Acquisition in Action features Key Questions at the start of each chapter Data based tasks to foster reflection and to help bridge the gap between theory and practice Audiovisual extracts of lessons on an accompanying website Further Reading suggestions at the end of each chapter Headway: Intermediate. Teacher's Guide with Teacher's Resource Center ,2018-12-27 The Construction of English J. Gray,2010-09-29 This book takes the view that ELT global coursebooks in addition to being curriculum artefacts are also highly wrought cultural artefacts which seek to make English mean in highly selective ways and it argues that the textual construction and imaging of English parallels the processes of commodity promotion more generally Developing Materials for Language Teaching Brian Tomlinson,2023-07-27 Viewing current developments in materials development through the eyes of developers users and researchers from all over the world this book applies principles to practice It provides a comprehensive coverage of the main aspects and issues in the field as well as critical overviews of recent developments in materials development and acts as a stimulus for innovation Now revised and updated to take account of developments over the last decade this 3rd edition features 8 new chapters covering materials use blended learning multimodality intercultural competence communicative competence the practical realisation of theoretical principles in the development of digital materials the teaching of right to left languages and the commodification of grammar Fully updated chapters with contemporary examples and considering teaching second and foreign languages other than

English New pedagogical resources with the addition of tasks and further readings for each chapter New online resources 2 new chapters on producing videos on teacher development courses and materials development on teacher training courses and 2 updated chapters on development courses for teachers and simulations in teacher development alongside a range of additional tasks and further reading suggestions

Cultural Linguistics and ELT Curriculum Minoo Alemi, Zia Tajeddin, 2025-10-10 This book accumulates analyses and evaluation evidence about the cultural conceptualizations in English language teaching ELT textbooks framed by cultural linguistics It considers conceptualizations of cultural constructs such as family gender beauty and the home within ELT curricula Despite the strength of cultural linguistics as a theoretical and analytical movement few volumes in applied linguistics have sought to provide data based evidence about the application of cultural linguistics to language teaching curricula The volume addresses recent issues in cultural linguistics and presents the associated implications for curriculum planning materials development and textbook evaluation The aim of the volume is to enhance understanding of ELT curricula through a cultural linguistics lens Relevant to cultural theorists education experts working in ELT and linguists in all language areas this is a landmark volume marrying applied linguistics to cultural linguistics in English language education studies
