Adoption as Sons of God James M. Scott, 1992 Originally presented as the author's thesis doctoral Tübingen 1989 Bibliography of Agriculture, 1971 Beyond the Qumran Community John J. Collins, 2010 With the full publication of the Dead Sea Scrolls fresh analysis of the evidence presented can be and indeed should be made Beyond the Qumran Community does just that reaching a surprising conclusion the sect described in the Dead Sea Scrolls developed later than has usually been supposed and was never confined to the site of Qumran John J Collins here deconstructs the Qumran community and shows that the sectarian documents actually come from a text spread throughout the land He examines the Community Rule or Yahad and considers the Teacher of Righteousness a pivotal figure in the Essene movement After examining the available evidence Collins concludes that it is in fact overwhelmingly likely that the site of Qumran housed merely a single settlement of a very widespread movement

Seeing the Psalms William P. Brown, 2002-01-01 William Brown introduces a new method of exegesis particularly for biblical poetry that attends to the metaphorical contours of the Psalms His method as proposed and demonstrated in this book supplements traditional ways of interpreting the Psalms and results in a fresh understanding of their original context and contemporary significance Bulletin - Council on the Study of Religion Council on the Study of Religion, 1974 T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation Introducing a Hermeneutics of Cispicion Jo Henderson-Merrygold, 2024-06-13 A hermeneutics of cispicion challenges cisnormative presuppositions that shape and at times occlude the variations in gender and sex exhibited by key characters in the ancestral narrative of Genesis 12-50. It charts the progression from Paul Ricoeur's hermeneutics of suspicion through liberation feminist and queer approaches. Focusing on Deryn Guest's queer and trans hermeneutics, Henderson Merrygold then offers a new strategy for reading against fixed binary gender assumptions where a character's sex always matches that assigned at birth. The initial case study addresses Sarah, who is the proto matriarch of the ancestral narratives in Genesis. Masculinities contrast with femininities and Sarah's own agency makes the picture of a consistent gender hard to identify. By closely reading the text, different facets of Sarah's story emerge to emphasise how much the narrative directs the reader towards a cisnormative reading. However, Henderson Merrygold shows it is not only the images of Sarah as feminine woman and mother that remain visible. The subject of the second case study, Esau, is regularly judged to be a hypermasculine character due to his bodily appearance but repeatedly fails to fulfil the expectations related to that appearance. Though often condemned as a poor example of hypermasculinity, a cispicious reading identifies a richer and more nuanced figure. Attending to Esau's actions, his rejection of the gendered expectations appears intentional, allowing him to settle more comfortably into his own identity. This project advocates for and demonstrates the value of creative interpretations of biblical texts that challenge both malestream and feminist gender assumptions.
