Leningrad Poetry 1953-1975 Emily Lygo,2010 Based on author s Ph D thesis from University of Oxford 2005

Major Poems of the Hebrew Bible Jan Fokkelman,2018-07-17 This book presents a comprehensive discussion of three famous poems which are studied as works of art A full description of their prosodic regularity as well as the variations on it is given and goes hand in hand with a detailed structural analysis of the lower and higher textual units Great care is taken to find the correct delimitation of cola half verses verses strophes and stanzas and in the case of Deut 32 of its four big sections after which all things fall into place The articulation of the higher units underpins the discursive or argumentative structure of Deut 32 and Job 3 and is a solid basis for an interpretation that tries to honour the thematic developments in these songs In the case of Ex 15 of which the stanzaic division is already known the attention shifts to the lower levels The contours and rhythms of its short cola and its verses and strophes are studied and accounted for The chapter on Job 3 has a special feature The count of premasoretic syllables is shown to be an essential part of the numerical perfection of this poem A major point of departure for this book which is corroborated by its results is that these poems are so complex read of such many layered significance that they cannot be given their due by a simple set of techniques or fixed canon of interpretive procedures This poetry requires a flexible approach which tries to cover the full range of its brilliant usage of language style and structure
