

AP UNITED STATES HISTORY: Sample Questions & Reading

Directions: Each of the questions or incomplete statements below is followed by either four suggested answers or completions. Select the one that is best in each case and then circle the letter.

Questions 1 - 3 refer to the excerpt below.

"In 1739 arrived among us from Ireland the Reverend Mr. [George] Whitefield, who had made himself remarkable there as an itinerant preacher. He was at first permitted to preach in some of our churches; but the clergy, taking a dislike to him, soon refused him their pulpits, and he was obliged to preach in the fields. The multitudes of all sects and denominations that attended his sermons were enormous. . . . It was wonderful to see the change soon made in the manners of our inhabitants. From being thoughtless or indifferent about religion, it seemed as if all the world were growing religious, so that one could not walk thro' the town in an evening without hearing psalms sung in different families of every street."

Benjamin Franklin, The Autobiography of Benjamin Franklin

1. Whitefield's impact suggests that religious culture among British North American colonists in the 1700s was most directly shaped by

- (A) Roman Catholic influences
- (B) interest in commerce and business
- (C) trans-Atlantic exchanges
- (D) reliance on agriculture

2. Whitefield's open-air preaching contributed most directly to which of the following trends?

- (A) The growth of the ideology of republican motherhood
- (B) Greater independence and diversity of thought
- (C) Movement of settlers to the backcountry
- (D) The pursuit of social reform

3. The preaching described in the excerpt is an example of which of the following developments in the 1700s?

- (A) The development of an idea of republican self-government
- (B) The emergence of calls for the abolition of slavery
- (C) The increased influence of the Enlightenment
- (D) The expansion of Protestant evangelism

New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking Kadriye Ercikan, Peter Seixas, 2015-02-20 New technologies have radically transformed our relationship to information in general and to little bits of information in particular The assessment of history learning which for a century has valued those little bits as the centerpiece of its practice now faces not only an unprecedented glut but a disconnect with what is valued in history education More complex processes historical thinking historical consciousness or historical sense making demand more complex assessments At the same time advances in scholarship on assessment open up new possibilities For this volume Kadriye Ercikan and Peter Seixas have assembled an international array of experts who have collectively moved the fields of history education and assessment forward Their various approaches negotiate the sometimes conflicting demands of theoretical sophistication empirically demonstrated validity and practical efficiency Key issues include articulating the cognitive goals of history education the relationship between content and procedural knowledge the impact of students language literacy on history assessments and methods of validation in both large scale and classroom assessments New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking is a critical research oriented resource that will advance the conceptualization design and validation of the next generation of history assessments
