Department of Education,1964 Teacher Development for Content-Based Language Education Susan Ballinger,Ruth Fielding,Diane J. Tedick,2024-09-10 This book fills a large gap in our understanding of how to prepare teachers for the challenging but increasingly popular task of integrating content and language instruction It brings together findings on content based teacher education from Africa Asia

Australia Europe and North America in order to inform researchers and teacher educators and enable them to play a critical role in the continued success of such programs It offers a solid grounding in theories and applications of content based approaches with empirical studies investigating teacher identity materials design use of cognitive discourse functions and best practices for teacher education Responding to the growing popularity of content based programs and the shortage of qualified teachers for these contexts this book promotes teacher researcher collaboration and provides support for trainee teachers in service teachers and course leaders

The West, Christians, and Jews in Saudi Arabian Schoolbooks Arnon Groiss, 2003 Analyzes the results of an examination of 93 Saudi textbooks on various subjects for grades 1 10 mostly from the years 1999 2002 In all of these Islam is presented as the only true religion while all other religions are false Consequently Christians and Jews are denounced as infidels and enemies of Islam and Muslims It is forbidden to befriend or emulate them The Saudi textbooks ascribe the most abhorrent qualities to Jews Jews are depicted throughout their history in a stereotyped and prejudiced manner beginning with the description of Jews as enemies of the Prophet Muhammad and ending with the occupation of Palestine The Protocols of the Elders of Zion is taught as an authentic document Anti Zionism has a prominent place in Saudi textbooks Israel is not recognized as a state and is absent from maps which designate its territory as occupied Palestine War and jihad are advocated rather than a peaceful solution of the Middle East conflict
