Database Programming Languages (DBPL-4) Catriel Beerl,Atsushi Ohori,Dennis Shasha,2013-06-29 The Fourth International Workshop on Database Programming Languages Object Models and Languages DBPL 4 took place in Manhattan New York City 30 August 1 September 1993 The areas of interest and the format of DBPL 4 focused on the integration of programming languages object models type systems and database systems As in the previous DBPL workshops the setting was informal allowing the participants to actively discuss and argue about the ideas presented in the talks The comments and remarks made by the participants during and after the presentations were taken into account in the preparation of the final versions of the papers The result we believe is a set of excellent papers The DBPL sequence is closely related to the sequence of International Workshops on Persistent Object Systems POS first started in 1985 While the DBPL workshops focus on language and model issues the POS workshops have focused on implementation issues thus the two sequences complement each other Many researchers participate in both workshop series The eight sessions of the technical program of DBPL 4 were as follows 1 Bulk types and their query languages two sessions 2 Object models and languages 3 Data types with order 4 Mechanisms to support persistence reflection and extensibility 5 Query optimization and integrity constraints 6 Logic based models 7 Implementation and performance issues

International Conference on Political Economy of Water Purnima George,Elvis Thomas,Meghna Vesvikar,2016-05-11 Access to water is a fundamental right of all human beings given that it significantly affects quality of life and enables people especially the poor to live with dignity A significant number of organisations and governments throughout the world are working on this challenge and developing sustainable intervention models There are several community driven approaches which attempt to bring water within the reach of people and to help establish people s ownership and rights over it The social work profession with its commitment to working with the marginalised and the underprivileged cannot be immune to the challenges posed by the scarcity of water and must inevitably join the various efforts made the world over to tackle this problem head on This book examines specific nuances of water scarcity and develops viable social work intervention strategies based on the experiences of successful intervention models
