1	Demonstrate understanding of the FAIS Act as a regulatory framework.	1.1 Describe the FAIS Act and subordinate legislation	Apply the knowledge of the financial products within the financial services environment
		1.2 Provide an overview of the financial services and different types of financial products a Representative can deal with
		1.3 Describe the role and function of a Compliance Officer

2.1.1 PURPOSE

The FAIS Act (Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act) is described as a 'market conduct regulation'. This means that it sets minimum standards around the way authorised financial services providers are required to conduct their business activities with clients.

The FAIS Act has two very clear purposes:

- The professionalization of the financial services sector; and
- The protection of consumers.

It regulates the financial services market when giving advice or provide intermediary services to clients. The FAIS Act was enacted in 2002 with the main objective to protect consumers in relation to financial services regarding regulated products.

The FAIS Act of 2002 was amended through the Financial Services Law General Amendment Act 45 of 2013.
