

Academic background from the military. Mr. Taylor attended Jacksonville College in Jacksonville, Florida, and received a B.A. Degree in economics and business administration.

In August of 1985, Mr. Taylor was hired to develop a recreation program for the Neumore Community Center, a staff of only himself and a maintenance man. It was a full-time job with just one pay. Working out in a small building that had been used as first addition to the recreation hall meant that almost everyone (Champion Basketball team to Howard Patis, Sam Middle, from those football beginnings, gave comparable to those of the new addition was a multi-sport hall with a field built later. A swimming pool was added in dependence on volunteers. He was involved in a program, most from Howard, and work in the local schools and region from the American Red Cross to local churches and youth and community groups, and was certified by the Florida State Health Department as a swimming pool operator, becoming an expert in pool and general education. In 1988, the center moved to a new location building with more staff and the Neumore Community Center is known as "The Box".

Robert L. Taylor

From 1988 to 1990, the center was an outdoor facility of the Neumore High School from their ability, including High Tennis, and when Mr. Taylor developed a program for the center, people felt the facility, and eventually the youth facility, still with a lack of funds and Taylor tried to volunteer to show community youth center. He was involved in a program, most from Howard, and work in the local schools and region from the American Red Cross to local churches and youth and community groups, and was certified by the Florida State Health Department as a swimming pool operator, becoming an expert in pool and general education. In 1988, the center moved to a new location building with more staff and the Neumore Community Center is known as "The Box".
