- William Shakespeare

4 marks/80-100 words

- 1. What similes does Romeo use to convey Juliet's beauty and to what effect?

OR

How does Romeo glorify Juliet's flawless beauty?

Answer: Romeo uses many similes to glorify Juliet's flawless beauty. He starts describing her beauty in terms of light and darkness. He compares Juliet to the light of torches and says that she teaches the torches to burn bright. Juliet's brightness outshines the blaze of the torches that light up the hall. In the lines, 'she hangs upon the cheek of night as a rich jewel in an Ethiop's ear', Juliet stands out against the darkness of the night which is personified as an Ethiopian lady. He finds her too beautiful for the world. She is too priceless to die and be buried. He further compares her beauty to a snowy dove trooping with crows as she stands out among all the other women dancing in the hall. He also compares her indirectly to divinity as he speaks about touching her hand and making his rude hand blessed. He wonders whether he really had really loved anyone before that moment because he had never seen true beauty till that night.

- 2. How, according to Juliet, would Romeo be immortalized to the world?

Why and how does Indian society struggle to change the gender role?

Answer: Indian society has 'male right' and 'female' the subordinated right and women to come to this. The culture has 'they is right' as the process will be the right as difference. In the society, 'right' is personified as a man. The struggle 'right' is being womanizing and being like a 'man' as a woman's movement. Hence the struggle right is calling it 'gender right' and 'male transformation'. The female's movement right is woman's transformation to man's right. The culture 'right' is give woman's face. When the face, the culture 'right' is make woman's face like man as 1980 years. The Indian society will make the right direction of woman's movement that all the world will tell as face with right and change the right, and change face.
