

Safety in the Biology Laboratory

Working in the biology laboratory can be interesting, exciting, and rewarding. But it can also be quite dangerous if you are not serious and alert and if proper safety precautions are not taken at all times. You are responsible for maintaining an enjoyable, instructional, and safe environment in the biology laboratory. Unsafe practices endanger not only you but the people around you as well.

Read the following information about safety in the biology laboratory carefully. Review applicable safety information before you begin each Laboratory Investigation. If you have any questions about safety or laboratory procedures, be sure to ask your teacher.

Safety Symbol Guide

All the investigations in this laboratory manual have been designed with safety in mind. If you follow the instructions, you should have a safe and interesting year in the laboratory. Before beginning any investigation, make sure you read the safety rules on pages 8–11 of Laboratory Manual A.

The safety symbols shown on page 8 are used throughout Laboratory Manual A. They appear first next to the Safety section of an investigation and then next to certain steps in an investigation where specific safety precautions are required. The symbols alert you to the need for special safety precautions. The description of each symbol indicates the precaution(s) you should take whenever you see the symbol in an investigation.
