

The Legalization of Same-Sex Marriage in the Philippines

Same-sex marriage is the practice of marrying someone of the same sex. It is a marriage between two women or two men under the law. Most countries in the world have already legalized same-sex marriage, but not all. The Philippines is one of the countries that have yet to legalize same-sex marriage in the country. There was international research on how many people are part of the LGBTQ+ community in the Philippines. According to the research, most people who are part of the LGBTQ+ community in the Philippines are in the Metro Manila area. This shows the support rate of people who are part of the LGBTQ+ in the country. Then, the question came up, should we allow the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the Philippines? There was a survey conducted by the Social Weather Stations in that part of the Philippines on the issue of legalizing same-sex marriage. The outcome of the survey showed that 60% of the people who support the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the Philippines. 30% are in favor of legalizing it and 10% of the Philippines have not decided whether they agree or disagree on the matter. This indicates that the acceptance rate of the citizens in the Philippines toward same-sex marriage is still pretty low despite the Philippines being a "gay-friendly country" (Gonzalez, 2016). The president of the Philippines, Mr. Rodrigo Duterte, also opposed the legalization of same-sex marriage here in the country that this is not an culture and same-sex marriage is not applicable here in the Philippines because we are Catholic (Gonzalez, 2017). Regardless, same-sex marriage should be legalized in the Philippines to strengthen the fundamental rights of equality and free freedom of belief and religion.

There are marriage for the LGBTQ+ even they have religious or spiritual beliefs or traditions. They have applied a long continuous tradition in the sharing of stories, especially the church. There are marriage in the Philippines because it is a culture here because of people who is religious and religious freedom is a culture where same-sex marriage is considered as one of equality and love of people. There are religious people here though believe, gay, transsexual, transgender, and other who support to religious freedom to culture equal rights under the law (Gonzalez, 2016). Gonzalez et al. (2016). This survey is an act of representation of religious freedom to believe in the freedom of religion and the gay support the freedom of belief and culture of religious in the Philippines of people in Manila (2016). This shows that the Philippines' religious tradition also is possible not to practicing support and respecting culture for a continuous commitment to
