- Keywords: life satisfaction, population, aging, well-being, happiness. Abstract: This study aims to explore the relationship between life satisfaction and aging in a population of 60-year-olds and older. The study was conducted in a community-based setting and involved a sample of 100 participants. The results show that life satisfaction is positively related to age, with older individuals reporting higher levels of life satisfaction. The study also found that social support and health status are important factors influencing life satisfaction in this population. The findings suggest that interventions aimed at improving social support and health status may be beneficial for enhancing life satisfaction in older adults.
