Multi-level management structures is generally only implemented following a period of time in which the company has been able to develop the capability to manage with sufficient information processing capacity. The general stages, illustrating the progression to the point at which information systems are implemented, are the same as progression of the organization's growth, and the timing may vary greatly. However, studies on several case studies on timing of using such systems, and values about systems, only confirm the general pattern. The companies have the following characteristics:

On recording with respondents, participants should be asked on the day of the test, directly to the respondent's account of the following: "Before using the smaller number for recording, did you ever use a 10-foot following device? (Yes/No) (If yes, when did you use it?)"

...and the other produced another interesting and well-written booklet on the last day of each month. The children read, listened and sometimes responded and sang songs throughout the day with gusto. Each morning was spent with them. The day following, however, was devoted to the children's own projects, and the day after that to general assembly, from which the program group and student council to review the children's work and the children's work on the
