Succeeding in the Secondary Classroom Harriett Arnold, 2001. Practical hands-on strategies to guide beginning teachers through their initial teaching experience. A roadmap to a successful journey. Michael Johnson, Principal, Alameda High School, Alameda, CA. Provides the practical support that new teachers need to help them succeed and at the same time provides the theoretical support that all teachers need to help them become truly professional educators. Marion McDowell, Former Deputy Superintendent, Sequoia Union High School District. Life-saving tools and techniques for that first year of teaching. Every day of the school year is the first day of the school year for some teacher somewhere. And whenever that first day occurs, the challenge is the same: to focus on everything and everyone—students, parents, colleagues, teaching associates, and school site administrators—and make it all work. This new book of insights and ideas is designed especially for beginning secondary teachers who want to excel during that all-important first year. Included are strategies on what to do before the first day of school, from planning classroom design to dressing for success. Handling that first week of school. Planning for classroom instruction. Student recordkeeping. Classroom management and discipline. Working with colleagues, substitutes, and paraprofessionals. Communicating with parents and invaluable insights on self-evaluation, school politics, and finding a balance between work, home, and colleagues. Succeeding in the Secondary Classroom is a culmination of materials from master teachers who work with beginning teachers every day to help them succeed. Harriet Arnold is a veteran educator who has served as an elementary school teacher, a middle school administrator, elementary school principal, director of personnel and staff development, and international consultant to schools. A graduate of San Francisco State University with a B.A. in Social Welfare, she received her Master of Education at California State University, San Jose, and her Doctorate with an emphasis in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of San Francisco. Her professional development projects have involved training for the Ministry of Education in the Bahamas and coordinating the Sequoia Beginning Teacher Program.
