However, many have as resources belief systems and traditions of caretaking expertise and mutual understanding that broaden dominant ways of perceiving well or ill being in the world. Thus, their stories are about both oppression and empowerment, victimization as well as the strength to reshape and redefine. The emphasis in this collection is on changing perception, giving voice, and addressing the issues of racial discrimination. There is also discussion of solutions, ways to personal empowerment and better health, ways of changing outreach to more equitably instill the benefits of preventive education, ways of altering the structures of care offered through health institutions, and ways to think about self help.
