Ain't Nothing Like Freedom Cynthia McKinney, 2013-03-26 Elected six times to the House from the state of Georgia Cynthia McKinney cut a trail through Congressional deceit like a hot ember through ash She discovered legislators who passed laws without reading them Party leaders who colluded across party lines against their constituents interests Black skinned individuals shilling for the white status quo She excoriated government lassitude over Hurricane Katrina uncovering dark secrets She held the only critical Congressional briefing on 9 11 introducing counter testimony of scholars investigators former intelligence agents As a member of the House Armed Services Committee she held Rumsfeld to account for malfeasance by military contractors and missing billions in the Pentagon s budget Then she hammered him on the reasons for the failure of NORAD air defenses on 9 11 She read truth into the Congressional Record held town halls and hearings led protests showed up while others played along to get along took the side of the people against the will of the Party And when she got too truth seeking and speaking the Republicans rigged the Democratic primaries to boot her out leaving behind a trail of achievements mostly won singlehandedly as a result of her service on the House International Relations House Agriculture House Armed Services and Budget Committees and the Select Committee on Hurricanes Katrina and Rita But McKinney rose again like a Phoenix answering the call to run as 2008 Green Party candidate for President challenging the corrupt two party stranglehold on American democracy Then it was on to the Freedom Flotilla to Gaza to be seized on the high seas and imprisoned in Israel On to Tripoli to serve as witness to the NATO terror bombing of Libya On to Malaysia to serve on the War Crimes Commission Often introduced as the Sojourner Truth the Harriet Tubman of our age McKinney reflects here on the Biblical figures of Esther Deborah and Naomi This is the Cynthia McKinney saga as it stands to date what she saw what she learned and how she fought for change

Landau, 2008-06-30 Herbert Landau a seasoned marketer applied his three decades of corporate marketing experience to save a small library faced with funding cuts His customer centric approaches brought in resources volunteers and in kind donations and earned the library local and national awards Cover Performing Arts Management Jessica Rae Bathurst, Tobie S. Stein, 2010-02-23 Do you know what it takes to manage a performing arts organization today In this comprehensive volume more than 100 managers of top nonprofit and commercial venues share their winning strategies Financial management building a funding base labor relations much more Explores the realities of running a performing arts organization today From theater to classical music from opera to dance every type of organization is included with information on how each one is structured key managerial figures its best practices for financial management how it handles labor relations and more Kennedy Center the Brooklyn Academy of Music Lincoln Center the Mark Morris Dance Company the New Victory Theater the Roundabout Theater the Guthrie Theater Steppenwolf Theater Company and many other top groups are represented Learn to manage a performing arts group successfully in today s rapidly changing cultural environment with Performing Arts Management Gender and Rhetorical Space in American Life, 1866-1910 Nan Johnson, 2002 Nan Johnson demonstrates that after the Civil War nonacademic or parlor traditions of rhetorical performance helped to sustain the icon of the white middle class woman as queen of her domestic sphere by promoting a code of rhetorical behavior for women that required the performance of conventional femininity Through a lucid examination of the boundaries of that gendered rhetorical space and the debate about who should occupy that space Johnson explores the codes governing and challenging the American woman s proper rhetorical sphere in the postbellum years While men were learning to preach practice law and set political policies women were reading elocution manuals letter writing handbooks and other conduct literature These texts reinforced the conservative message that women s words mattered but mattered mostly in the home Postbellum pedagogical materials were designed to educate Americans in rhetorical skills but they also persistently directed the American woman to the domestic sphere as her proper rhetorical space Even though these materials appeared to urge the white middle class women to become effective speakers and writers convention dictated that a woman s place was at the hearthside where her rhetorical talents were to be used in counseling and instructing as a mother and wife Aided by twenty one illustrations Johnson has meticulously compiled materials from historical texts no longer readily available to the general public and in so doing has illuminated this intersection of rhetoric and feminism in the nineteenth century The rhetorical pedagogies designed for a postbellum popular audience represent the cultural sites where a rethinking of women s roles becomes open controversy about how to value their words Johnson argues this era of uneasiness about shifting gender roles and the icon of the quiet woman must be considered as evidence of the need for a more complete revaluing of women s space in historical discourse
