

Resume Writing Guidelines for 2021

Professional summary

Employers prefer applicants to start with a professional summary that contains their key skill sets, personal character traits, and most importantly, keywords that match those found in the job posting

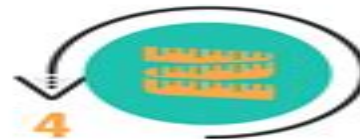

Personal branding statement

Below your job title, add a sentence that highlights your strongest assets.

LinkedIn profile link

Linking your LinkedIn profile to your application provides potential employers with a way to "get to know" candidates beyond the resume

Include measurable results

Describe key projects and contributions that benefitted the company, along with any significant accomplishments that would help your application stand out.

Hard and Soft Skills

Don't just limit your application to your hard skills alone.

Use modern font and format

Using modern font and format tells the reader that you are energized about your career.
