Structural Inequality Victoria Kaplan, 2006 Architecture is a challenging profession The education is rigorous and the licensing process lengthy the industry is volatile and compensation lags behind other professions All architects make a huge investment to be able to practice but additional obstacles are placed in the way of women and people of color Structural Inequality relates this disparity through the stories of twenty black architects from around the United States and examines the sociological context of architectural practice Through these experiences research and observation Victoria Kaplan explores the role systemic racism plays in an occupation commonly referred to as the white gentlemen s profession Given the shifting demographics of the United States Kaplan demonstrates that it is incumbent on the profession to act now to create a multicultural field of practitioners who mirror the changing client base Structural Inequality provides the context to inform and facilitate the necessary conversation on increasing diversity in architecture

Routledge Handbook of Sport and Legacy Richard Holt, Dino Ruta, 2015-03-02 What remains of a great sporting spectacle after the last race is run or the final match is played How can the vast expense of mounting such events be justified What if there is nothing left behind or what if the legacy is negative a costly infrastructure which is unused or a debt ridden host city The Routledge Handbook of Sport and Legacy addresses perhaps the most important issue in the hosting of major contemporary sporting events the problem of legacy It offers a rigorous innovative and comparative insight into this contested concept from interdisciplinary and practical perspectives Major events must now have a conscious credible and defined policy for legacy to meet public expectations The book provides a comprehensive survey of the various kinds of legacy that can be delivered as well as a close examination of the potential benefits and practical challenges involved in each From hard legacies such as stadia and infrastructure to soft legacies including skill development attitude change and capacity building the book offers both a historical case study and an innovative strategic management approach and establishes the limits of what can realistically be achieved in terms of economic social cultural physical and sporting development The Routledge Handbook of Sport and Legacy includes contributions from world leading scholars and practitioners and features detailed case studies of major sports events from around the world including the FIFA World Cup and ten Olympics Games from London in 1908 to London 2012 It is invaluable reading for students and researchers working in sport studies events management human geography economics or planning and an essential reference for any professional engaged in delivering legacy through sport Our Social World: Condensed Jeanne H. The Dawn of Canada's Century Gordon Darroch, 2014-01-01

Sir Wilfrid Laurier famously claimed that the twentieth century would be Canada's century and indeed its opening decade witnessed remarkable territorial, demographic, and social transformations. Yet the lives of those who lived and laboured to fashion these changes remain largely hidden from historical view. The Dawn of Canada's Century presents close and systematic interpretations of everyday lives based on the first national sample of the 1911 census. Written by many of Canada's leading historical researchers, The Dawn of Canada's Century demonstrates the wide-ranging and revealing social histories made possible by the new Canadian Century Research Infrastructure: an innovative database of national samples of decennial census microdata from 1911 through 1951. This revealing collection sheds new light on topics including identity and language, the socio-demography of aboriginal populations, national labour market dynamics, earnings distributions, social mobility, gender, and immigration experiences, and the technologies of census taking. Situating early twentieth-century Canada within international historical population studies, these essays provide new ways to understand individuals' lives and connect them to larger structural changes. Contributors include Peter Baskerville (Alberta), Claude Belavance (Université du Québec à Trois-Rivières), Sean T. Cadigan (Memorial University), Gordon Darroch (York), Lisa Dillon (UdeM), Chad Gaffield (SSHRC), Danielle Gauvreau (Concordia), Gustave Goldmann (Ottawa), Adam J.
