

Analyzing Literature Assessment

Step 1: Review the prompt.

Layers of meaning exist in all works of literary fiction. Consider the ways the author of your selected short story used style and literary elements, like plot, diction, syntax, figurative language, character, conflict, and setting. Compose an essay in which you analyze and explain how the author's style and employment of literary elements create a particular mood in the text.

Step 2: Review your short story and your graphic organizer.

Step 3: Outline your essay using the chart below. Begin with your thesis statement, and then fill out the outline based on your thesis. You may or may not use each section, but provide as much information as possible in the planning stage.

Remember: outlines are not written in paragraph form. You are only outlining the literary analysis, not writing the entire essay. You will write the essay in a later module.

Short Story	The short story I selected is what I have been doing lately
Thesis Statement	My Thesis: In "What I have been doing lately," Jamaica Kincaid uses brilliant metaphorical language and diction to portray a feeling of confusion and loneliness by giving the impression that the protagonist is stuck in an endless cycle.
Body Paragraph: I. Reason #1 A. Direct Quote #1 to Support Reason 1. Paraphrase this Evidence B. Connection to Thesis 1. Elaborate on Connection C. Direct Quote #2 to Support Reason 1. Paraphrase this Evidence D. Connection to Thesis 1. Elaborate on Connection E. Concluding Statement that Restates Language from Thesis	I. The setting in which Kincaid would place our protagonist contributed to the reader's sense of dread. A. "I was sick from falling, and I missed all the people I had loved. I reverted after saying, "I don't want to fall anymore." I was again situated at the edge of the huge opening. As I turned to face the deep abyss, I whispered, "You may close up now," and it did. 1. She is upset because she misses all of her loved ones, but she then confounds the audience by miraculously "reversing" himself back. B. The main character is lost. 1. Kincaid shows us that the protagonist doesn't seem to have a clear life goal or direction. C. " While walking north, I looked up and saw the planet Venus. I said, "It must be almost morning." I saw a monkey in a tree. The tree had no leaves." 1. Kincaid leaves the reader perplexed by writing this without providing much background or explanation between each statement. D. The protagonist is confused and has many thoughts. 1. This quote seems to be going too fast, and we don't really know what the reader is thinking.
