The Battle For China's Past Mobo Gao, 2008-02-20 Shows that the Mao era was beneficial for most Chinese citizens A powerful mixture of political passion and original research a brave polemic against the fashionable view on China Aims a knockout blow at Jung Chang's recent book on Mao which Bush and the conservatives rave reviewed Gregor Benton Professor of Chinese History University of Cardiff This important book opens a much needed window onto Chinese perceptions of the country's post Mao direction Highlights the renewal of popular support for socialism and the growing opposition to contemporary state policies Martin Hart Landsberg Professor of Economics Lewis Clark College Portland Oregon Mao and his policies have long been demonised in the West with the Cultural Revolution considered a fundamental violation of human rights As China embraces capitalism the Mao era is being surgically denigrated by the Chinese political and intellectual elite This book tackles the extremely negative depiction of China under Mao in recent publications and argues most people in China including the rural poor and the urban working class actually benefited from Mao's policy of a comprehensive welfare system for the urban and basic health and education provision for the rural which is being reversed in the current rush towards capitalism By a critical analysis of the mainstream account of the Mao era and the Cultural Revolution and by revealing what is offered in the unofficial e media debates this book sets the record straight making a convincing argument for the positive effects of Mao's policies on the well being of the Chinese people

Come Back in September Darryl Pinckney, 2022-10-25 Critic and writer Darryl Pinckney recalls his friendship and apprenticeship with Elizabeth Hardwick and Barbara Epstein and the introduction they offered him to the New York literary world Darryl Pinckney arrived at Columbia University in New York City in the early 1970s and had the opportunity to enroll in Elizabeth Hardwick's creative writing class at Barnard It changed his life When the semester was over he continued to visit her and he became close to both Hardwick and Barbara Epstein Hardwick's best friend and neighbor and a fellow founder of The New York Review of Books Pinckney was drawn into a New York literary world where he encountered some of the fascinating contributors to the Review

among them Susan Sontag Robert Lowell and Mary McCarthy Yet the intellectual and artistic freedom that Pinckney observed on West Sixty seventh Street could conflict with the demands of his politically minded family and their sense of the unavoidable lessons of black history In addition through his peers and former classmates such as Felice Rosser Jim Jarmusch Jean Michel Basquiat Lucy Sante Howard Brookner and Nan Goldin Pinckney witnessed the coming together of the New Wave scene in the East Village He experienced the avant garde life at the same time as he was discovering the sexual freedom brought by gay liberation It was his time for hope In Come Back in September through his memories of the city and of Hardwick we see the emergence and evolution of Pinckney himself as a writer
